Demographics

Adams County is located in southeastern Washington, bounded by Lincoln County on the north, Whitman to the east, Franklin to the south, and Grant on the west. As of April 1, 2015, the county's population was estimated to be 19,410; the 31st most populous county in the state. With a land area of about 1,925 square miles, the county is Washington's 32nd most densely populated county with approximately 10.1 persons per square mile. Approximately 47% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Adams County is Othello with over 7,700 residents, followed by Ritzville (1,700), Lind (600), and Washtucna (200). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 14,302.

Adams County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 19,081)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	5,539	29.03%	$15,103
125-200%	4,309	22.58%	$24,164
200-300%	3,077	16.13%	$36,246
300-400%	2,400	12.58%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) "Diffuseness"

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the "diffuseness" of all FTAs across the state. In this context, "diffuseness" means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person's county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Adams County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Castle Rock, Kalama, Kelso, Longview, Woodland: See Cowlitz County District Court

Demographics

Cowlitz County is located in southwest Washington on the Columbia River. As of April 1, 2015, the county’s population was estimated to be 104,280; the 12th most populous county in the state. With a land area of about 1,140 square miles, the county is Washington’s 12th most densely populated county with approximately 91.5 persons per square mile. Approximately 43% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Cowlitz County is Longview with around 37,100 residents, followed by Kelso (12,000), part of Woodland (5,800), and Kalama (2,500). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 79,668.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

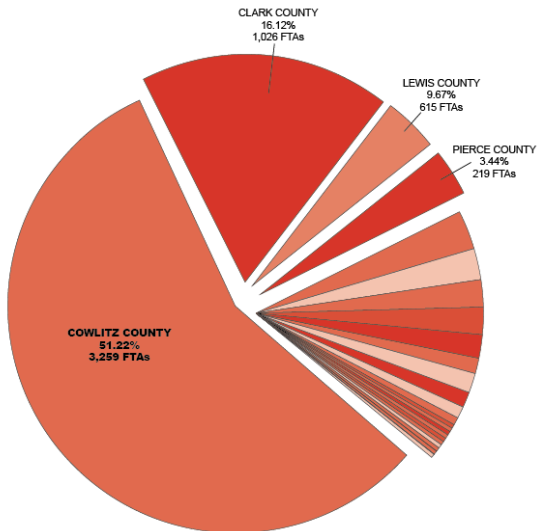

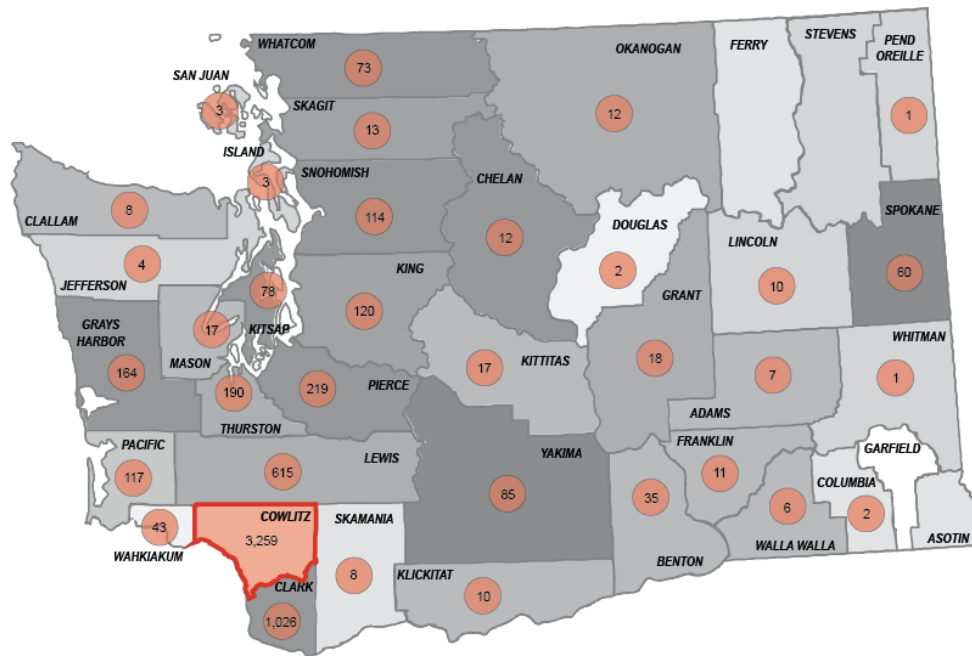

Cowlitz County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 102,338)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	23,301	22.77%	$15,103
125-200%	15,723	15.36%	$24,164
200-300%	17,955	17.54%	$36,246
300-400%	15,293	14.94%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) “Diffuseness”

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the “diffuseness” of all FTAs across the state. In this context, “diffuseness” means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person’s county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Cowlitz County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Cowlitz County District Court specifies that defendants may contact the court clerk to request up to 60 days to pay a fine in full provided that the request is made within 15 days of the infraction’s issuance, and that monthly payments are administered by Court Payment Management Services, Inc.
- Cowlitz County District Court contracts with Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.

Local Relicensing Programs

Cowlitz County offers a “DWLS Program” involving the completion of a reinstatement plan that must be approved by the judge, and which includes a reduction of the collection agency fee to 20% and the cancellation of all interest. So long as monthly payments are being made, the court releases the associated holds on the defendant’s driving privileges. A defendant removed from the program for violating its requirements may not be eligible to participate in the future. See <http://www.co.cowlitz.wa.us/index.aspx?NID=888> for additional information.

APPENDIX B

Demographics

Grays Harbor County is located on Washington’s west coast, with Jefferson County to the north, Mason and Thurston counties to the east, and Pacific and Lewis counties to the south. As of April 1, 2015, the county’s population was estimated to be 73,110; the 18th most populous county in the state. With a land area of about 1,902 square miles, the county is Washington’s 19th most densely populated county with approximately 38.4 persons per square mile. Approximately 39% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Grays Harbor County is Aberdeen with around 16,800 residents, followed by Hoquiam (8,600), Ocean Shores (5,900), and Montesano (4,100). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 53,566.

Grays Harbor County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 71,419)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	16,707	23.39%	$15,103
125-200%	11,469	16.06%	$24,164
200-300%	12,517	17.53%	$36,246
300-400%	9,256	12.96%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) “Diffuseness”

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the “diffuseness” of all FTAs across the state. In this context, “diffuseness” means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person’s county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Grays Harbor County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Grays Harbor County District Court specifies that payments on fines and costs are allowed, and persons unable to pay fines should contact the court for instructions on how to be given an option to perform community restitution work. All fines, costs and fees are due in full at sentencing unless the defendant is given the option to sign a payment agreement with the court, which is set up by the clerk. A one-time $10 fee is charged to set up a monthly payment plan. The court also specifies that defendants who didn't pay on time and wish to clear the FTA, but still cannot pay in full, may file a written request on a form available in the court office for a hearing to set aside the judgment.
- Aberdeen Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Cosmopolis Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Elma Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Hoquiam Municipal Court specifies that monthly payment arrangements may be made with the court, and a $10 time payment administrative fee will be added to each time payment agreement.
- Montesano Municipal Court specifies in its local rules that infraction penalties shall be paid at the conclusion of any hearing or upon a schedule set by a court approved time payment agreement. The court assesses a $10 fee per payment plan for traffic infractions. The court rules also specify that criminal time payments shall be the greater of $50 per month or the total amount due divided by eleven, unless the court approves a different schedule.
- Oakville Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Ocean Shores Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Westport Municipal Court specifies in its "Mitigation by Mail" form that the monetary penalty assessed will be set up on a time payment plan and the time payment schedule and ruling are mailed to the defendant.
- Grays Harbor County District Court, and Aberdeen, Cosmopolis, Elma, Ocean Shores, and Westport municipal courts contract with Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.
- Hoquiam Municipal Court contracts with Armada Corp. for collection services.
- Montesano Municipal Court contracts with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. and Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Jefferson County District Court specifies that when a judge rules against a defendant and the court assesses a fine, that payment is due within 60 days unless the defendant sets up a payment plan with Signal Credit Management Services. However, if the hearing is via mail, a defendant has 14 days from the date of the ruling to submit payment. The court also specifies that defendants who need to arrange to make several payments over time, or need to arrange for community service instead of payment, will need to request a hearing to explain this to the judge. The court also specifies that once the matter is referred to a collection agency, payment is required in full and the court will not accept partial payments, but the court may reconsider if a defendant can show good cause for failing to respond, appear, or pay within one year.
- Jefferson County District Court contracts with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. for collection services.

Demographics

King County is located between Puget Sound to the west and the Cascade mountains to the east, with Snohomish County to the north and Pierce County to the south. As of April 1, 2015, the county’s population was estimated to be 2,052,800; the state’s most populous county. With a land area of nearly 2,116 square miles, the county is also Washington’s most densely populated county with approximately 970.3 persons per square mile. Approximately 12% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in King County is Seattle with around 662,400 residents, followed by Bellevue (135,000), Kent (122,900), and Renton (98,500). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 1,661,174.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

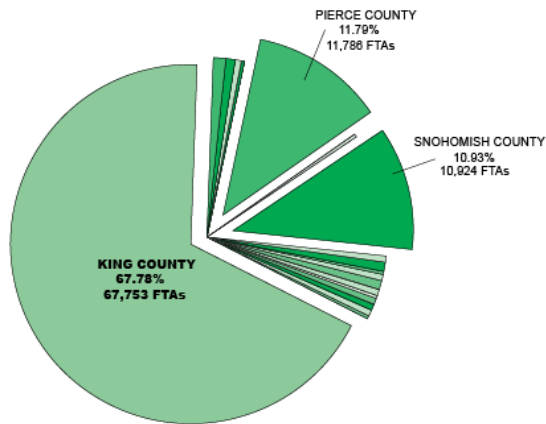

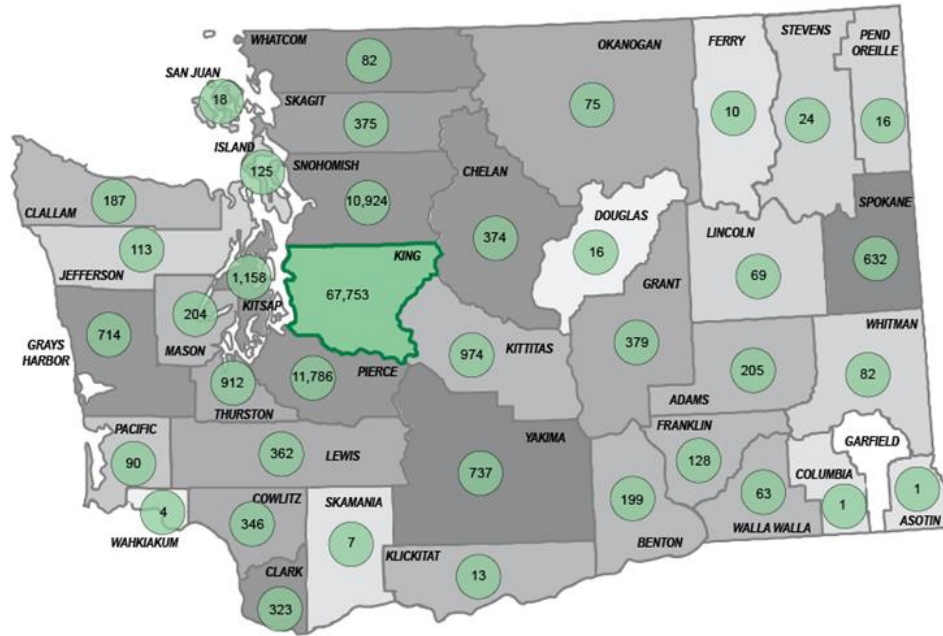

King County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 2,045,756)	Percent of Population	Income

Payment Plan / Collections

- King County District Courts specify that full payment must be received by the court or a time payment plan must be established with Transworld Systems, Inc. on or before the due date to avoid having the case referred to collections. The court also specifies that defendants requiring a time payment have the responsibility to submit the time payment application before the payment deadline. The terms of the payment plan include a one-time set-up fee of $12, a monthly fee of $5, and a payment based on the amount of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment is 10% of the amount due if $1,000 or less, and the greater of $25 or 5% of the amount due if over $1,000. The court also specifies that defendants may submit a "Request for Relief from Judgment" form if they failed to timely request a hearing, pay a ticket, or failed to appear.
- Black Diamond Municipal Court specifies that failure to pay financial obligations within 30 days will result in the account being forwarded to a collection agency unless otherwise permitted by the court, but does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding how to request a payment plan.
- Bothell Municipal Court specifies that the court expects defendants to pay their fine on the day of their hearing, but that courts will allow 30 days to pay in full if the defendant can't pay the entire penalty at that time. The court also specifies that defendants unable to pay in 30 days will be give an application for a time payment agreement with Signal Credit Management Services.
- Des Moines Municipal Court specifies that defendants may be eligible for a 60-day payment agreement, and that any agreement beyond 60 days must be arranged through Signal Credit Management Services.
- Enumclaw Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.

APPENDIX B

- Federal Way Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Issaquah Municipal Court directs defendants wanting to request a payment plan to call the court. The court also provides a link to a time-payment collection program. The time-payment program is managed by Signal Credit Management Services, which assesses a $15 set-up fee, a monthly fee, and sets payment based on the amount of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment amount is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance if it is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if it is $1,000 or more.
- Seattle Municipal Court specifies that defendants should contact AllianceOne directly to make payment arrangements.
- King County District Courts, and Black Diamond, Des Moines, Kent, Mercer Island, Pacific, SeaTac, and Tukwila municipal courts contract with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. for collection services.
- Enumclaw Municipal Court contracts with Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.
- Seattle Municipal Court contracts with AllianceOne Receivables Management and PMT Solutions for collection services.

Local Relicensing Programs

Beginning October 1, 2017, King County District and Municipal Courts launched a unified payment program. The program is for individuals with traffic-related fines in multiple jurisdictions in King County and provides an easier and less expensive way to pay court-mandated fines. The program also lifts the hold on a person's driver's license before the fines are paid in full.

Participating courts include King County District Court, and the municipal courts of Algona, Auburn, Bellevue, Black Diamond, Bothell, Burien, Carnation, Clyde Hill, Des Moines, Enumclaw, Federal Way, Hunts Point, Issaquah, Kenmore, Kent, Kirkland, Lake Forest Park, Maple Valley, Medina, Mercer Island, Newcastle, Normandy Park, North Bend, Pacific, Redmond, Renton, Sammamish, SeaTac, Seattle, Shoreline, Skykomish, Tukwila, Woodinville, and Yarrow Point.

Under the program, court customers with suspended licenses due to failure to respond/pay contact a court where they have fines to receive documentation needed to complete the online application. The payment agency, Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP, works with individuals to determine a realistic payment plan as low as $25 per month, which includes a $7 monthly fee. Once the payment agency receives the first payment, participating courts will be notified and they will notify DOL to lift the hold from the person's driver's license.

The requirements for participation in the program include:

- 1) Defendants having two or more tickets in two or more courts in King County;
- 2) The tickets having a hold or potential hold against the defendant's driver's license;
- 3) Defendants having an ability to pay; and
- 4) Defendant resolving any outstanding warrants issued by a court in King County.

Many of the municipal courts in King County also offer local relicensing programs, including, for example, Seattle and Tukwila municipal courts. More information on these programs can be found at the following links:

Demographics

Kitsap County is located on the Kitsap peninsula, jutting into the Puget Sound and positioned between the Olympic Peninsula to the west and King County to the east. As of April 1, 2015, the county’s population was estimated to be 258,200; the state’s 7th most populous county. With a land area of nearly 395 square miles, the county is Washington’s 3rd most densely populated county with approximately 653.8 persons per square mile. Approximately 66% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Kitsap County is Bremerton with around 39,400 residents, followed by Bainbridge Island (23,400), Port Orchard (13,500), and Poulsbo (10,000). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 187,045.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

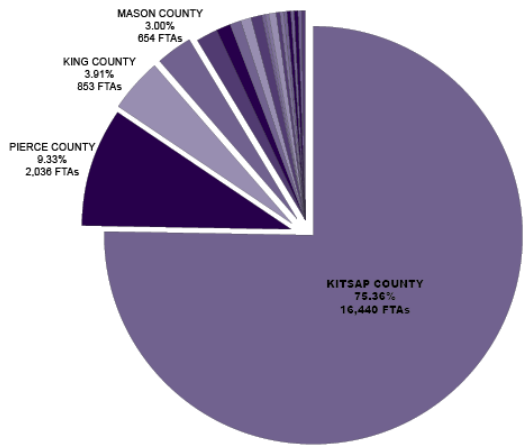

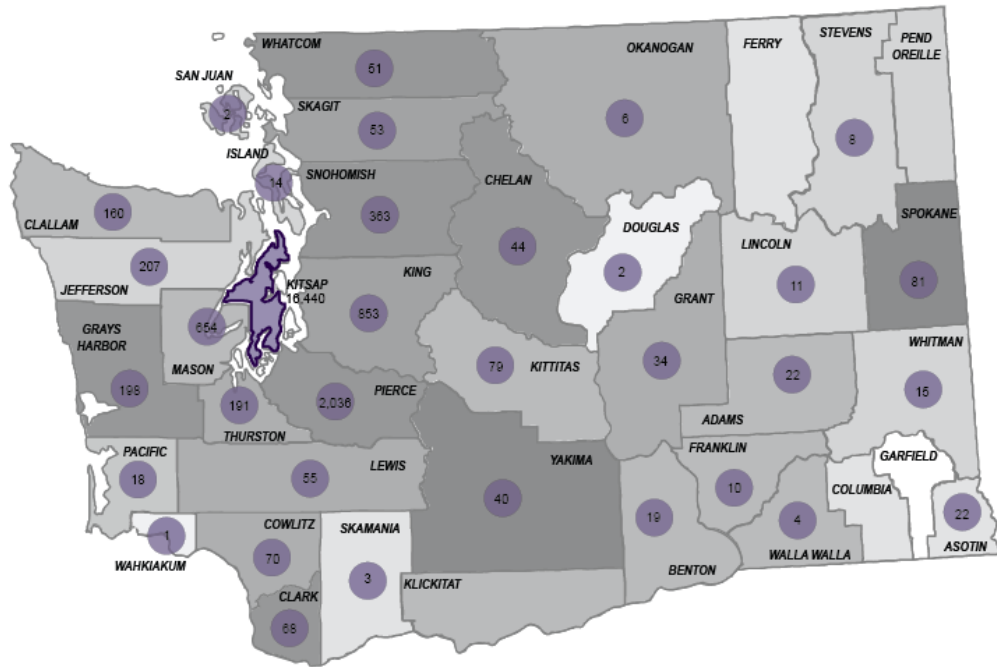

Kitsap County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 255,441)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	35,602	13.94%	$15,103
125-200%	27,585	10.80%	$24,164
200-300%	42,487	16.63%	$36,246
300-400%	36,860	14.43%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) “Diffuseness”

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the “diffuseness” of all FTAs across the state. In this context, “diffuseness” means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person’s county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Kitsap County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

APPENDIX B

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Kitsap County District Court provides an “I Can’t Afford to Pay” motion and declaration form online exclusively for use in criminal cases. Kitsap County District Court also specifies that defendants must pay any fine ordered following a mitigation or contested hearing within 60 days, and defendants who need more time to pay a fine can apply to Court Payment Management Services, Inc. for time payment assistance, which charges a $15 one-time set-up fee and a $10 monthly monitoring fee.
- Bainbridge Island Municipal Court specifies that if defendants cannot pay their penalty all at once that the court clerk will explain the process for a time payment agreement with Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and requires payment amounts based on the obligation; the minimum monthly payment amount is the greater of 10% of the account balance or $25 if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the amount owed is over $1,000.
- Bremerton Municipal Court specifies that court fines are generally due in full on the date they are assessed, but that the court may grant a 30-day extension upon a defendant’s request. The court also specifies that defendants unable to pay in full within 30 days may enter into a monthly payment agreement with Signal Credit Management Services. Defendants are instructed to contact the court office to verify eligibility and for further information.

- Port Orchard Municipal Court provides a link to the form for establishing a time payment agreement with Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and requires payment amounts based on the obligation; the minimum monthly payment amount is the greater of 10% of the account balance or $25 if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the amount owed is over $1,000.
- Poulsbo Municipal Court specifies that for defendants who cannot pay all of their penalty at once, the court clerk will work out a time payment agreement for a $10 administrative fee.
- Kitsap County District Court contracts with Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.
- Bainbridge Island, Bremerton, Port Orchard, and Poulsbo municipal courts contract with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. for collection services.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Lower Kittitas County District Court specifies that whether a defendant can have a time payment agreement depends on the status of the case and instructs defendants to contact the court to find out. If a case qualifies for time payment, the court will either give the defendant a deadline to pay the account in full or the defendant will need to apply for an extended time payment plan through Court Payment Management Services, Inc., which charges a $15 set-up fee and a monthly management fee. The court also specifies that while in most cases, the option for a defendant who failed to appear is to pay the fine in full, a defendant with a compelling reason may ask the court to set aside the finding and reset the hearing using the form provided.
- Upper Kittitas County District Court specifies that defendants who are unable to remit payment in full within 15 days may set up a time-payment collection arrangement with Signal Credit Management Services, which assesses a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and sets payment terms as a function of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the amount owed is $1,000 or more. The court also provides a form for defendants who failed to appear so they may request to vacate the finding and reset the hearing subject to court review.

- Cle Elum Municipal Court specifies that individuals wanting to establish monthly recurring payments should follow a link and instructions through a website that requires registration with nCourt.
- Roslyn Municipal Court specifies that individuals wanting to establish monthly recurring payments should follow a link and instructions through a website that requires registration with nCourt.
- Lower Kittitas County District Court contracts with Dynamic Collectors, Inc. for collection services.

Demographics

Okanogan County is located in north-central Washington on the Canadian border with Whatcom and Skagit counties to the west, Chelan and Douglas counties to the south, and Ferry County to the east. As of April 1, 2015, the county's population was estimated to be 41,860; the state's 25th most populous county. With a land area of roughly 5,268 square miles, the county is Washington's 34th most densely populated county with about 8 persons per square mile. Approximately 60% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Okanogan County is Omak with around 4,900 residents, followed by Okanogan (2,600), Brewster (2,400), and Oroville (1,700). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 32,193.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

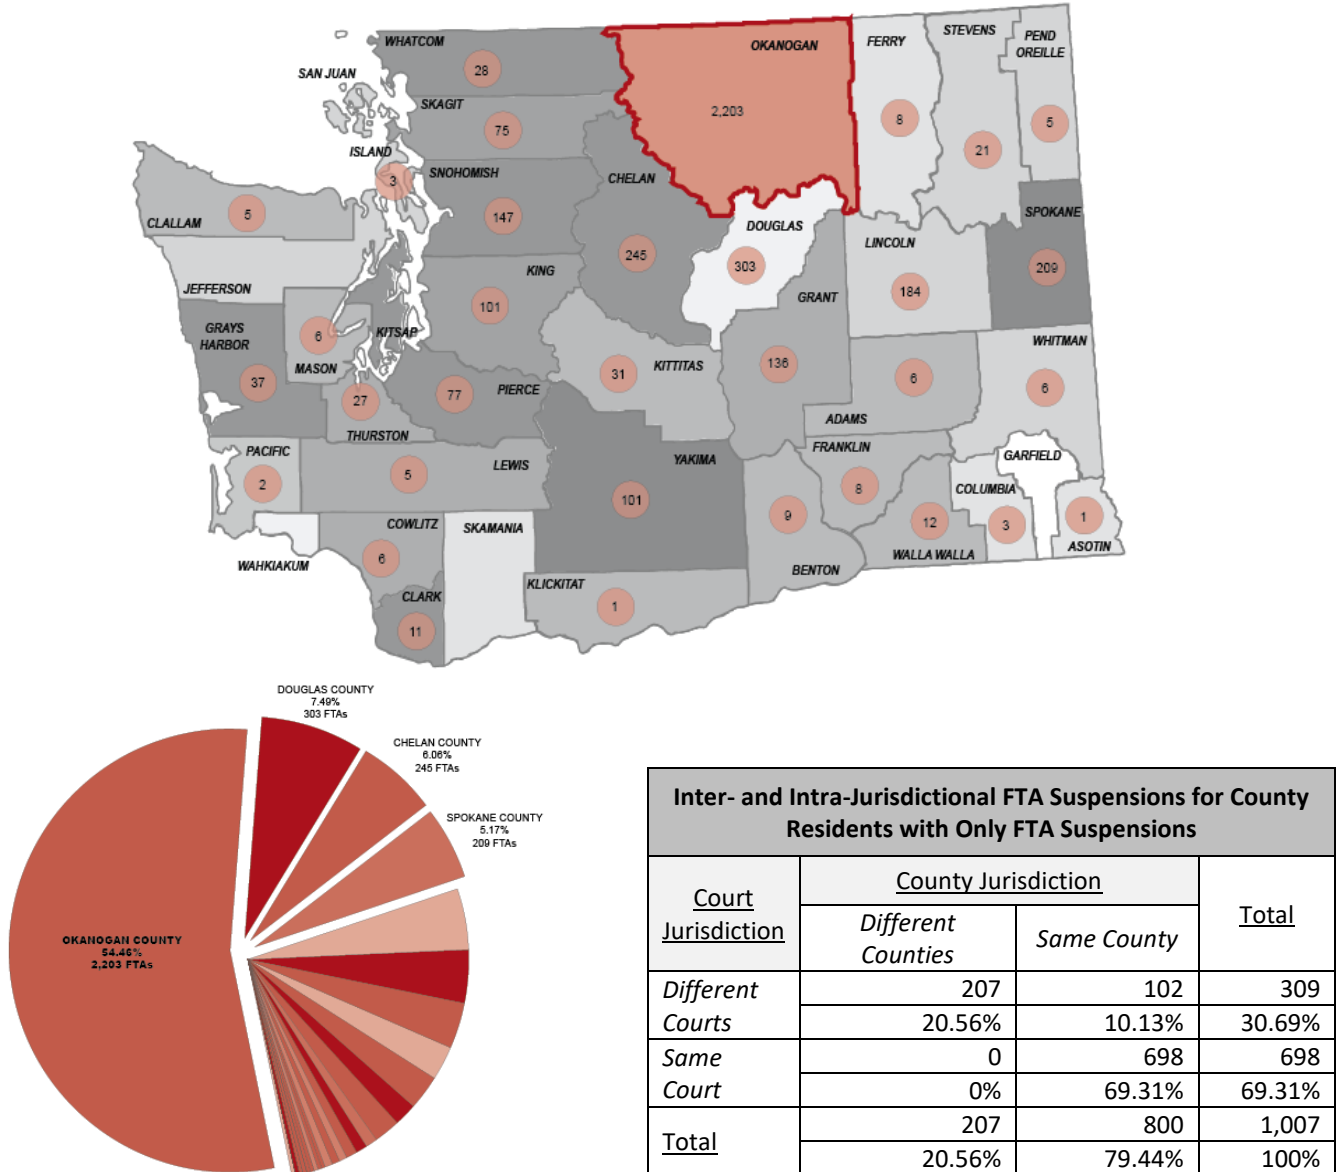

Okanogan County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 41,332)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	11,180	27.05%	$15,103
125-200%	7,939	19.21%	$24,164
200-300%	7,342	17.76%	$36,246
300-400%	4,796	11.60%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) “Diffuseness”

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the “diffuseness” of all FTAs across the state. In this context, “diffuseness” means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person’s county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Okanogan County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Okanogan County District Court specifies that if infraction or criminal defendants can’t pay all of their penalty, they will be offered a time payment agreement. In its mitigation by mail form, the court specifies that defendants must pay 30 days from the date of the order or make monthly payments in the amount of $50. The court also specifies that it will assess a $10 time

Demographics

Skagit County is located in northwest Washington and is bordered by Whatcom County to the north, Snohomish County to the south, and Okanogan and Chelan counties to the east. As of April 1, 2015, the county's population was estimated to be 120,620; the state's 11th most populous county. With a land area of roughly 1,731 square miles, the county is Washington's 14th most densely populated county with about 70 persons per square mile. Approximately 41% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Skagit County is Mount Vernon with around 33,500 residents, followed by Anacortes (16,300), Sedro-Woolley (10,700), and Burlington (8,500). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 93,885.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

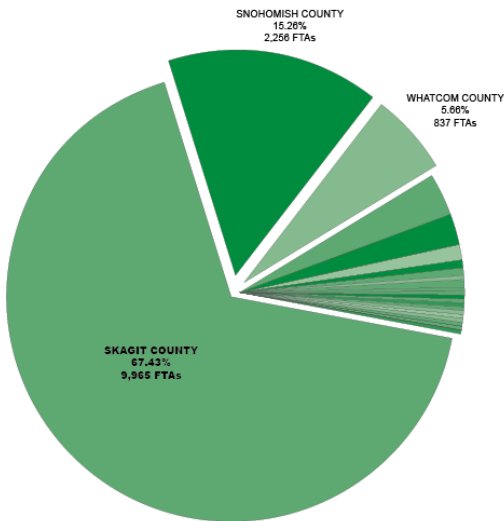

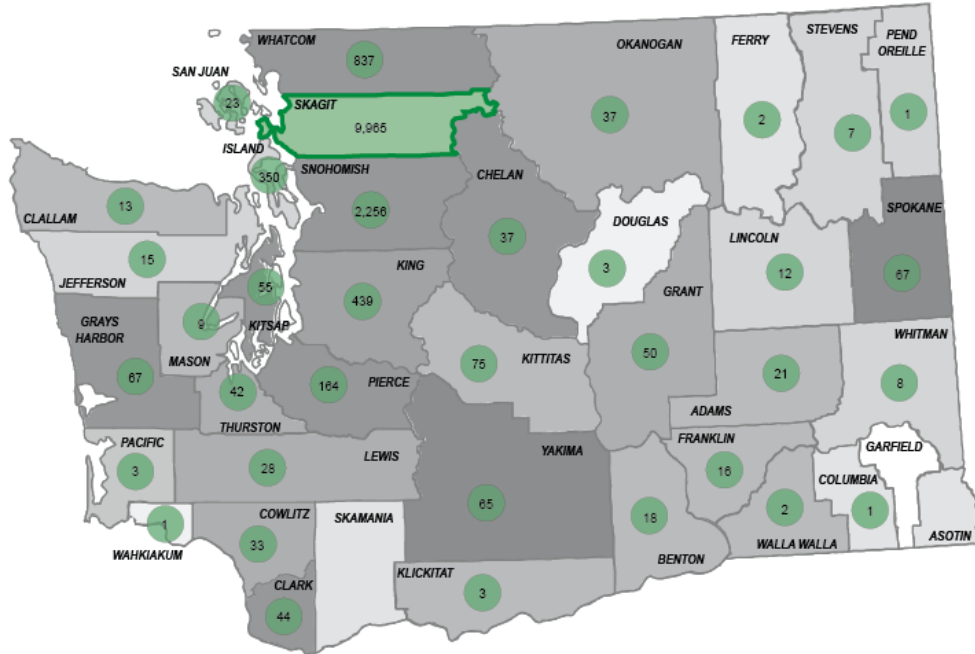

Skagit County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 119,343)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	24,130	20.22%	$15,103
125-200%	17,511	14.67%	$24,164
200-300%	20,878	17.49%	$36,246
300-400%	15,251	12.78%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) "Diffuseness"

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the "diffuseness" of all FTAs across the state. In this context, "diffuseness" means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person's county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Skagit County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

APPENDIX B

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Skagit County District Court specifies that infraction defendants who are unable to pay the penalty in full may send or deliver a written request for time pay to the court within the 15 day response time period. The court also specifies that defendants may ask the judge for time pay at the conclusion of a mitigation or contested hearing where a penalty is imposed. If time pay is granted, there is an additional $10 fee added to the total amount due.
- Anacortes Municipal Court provides a link to a document that specifies that if a defendant requests a mitigation hearing, that the court may allow time payments. The court also provides a form for defendants seeking to set aside a judgment for failing to respond, appear, or pay.
- Burlington Municipal Court specifies that the judge or clerk will work out a time payment agreement for a $10 charge for defendants who are unable to pay the entire penalty at the time of hearing.
- Mount Vernon Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.

APPENDIX B

- Sedro-Woolley Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available online regarding how to obtain a payment plan, but does provide a form for defendants seeking to set aside a judgment for failing to respond, appear, or pay.
- Skagit County District Court and Mount Vernon Municipal Court contract with SB&C for collection services.
- Anacortes Municipal Court contracts with Debt Recovery Specialists for collection services.
- Burlington Municipal Court contracts with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. for collection services.

Local Relicensing Programs

Skagit County District Court, and Anacortes, Burlington, and Mount Vernon Municipal Courts have a “Fine Payment Relicensing Program.” If a defendant’s fines have not been turned over to a collection agency, the defendant may make a written request for a payment plan. If a defendant’s fines are at a collection agency, the defendant must try to make payments with the agency. The courts instruct defendants to make a written offer for a fixed monthly payment based upon the defendant’s income. The expected court contract payment ranges from $70 for individuals with $1,000 in monthly income to $420 for individuals with $2,800 in monthly income. Defendants seeking lower payments because of other debts or obligations can fill out a longer form and provide proof of such debts or obligations. If the collection agency refuses to accept the payment plan, the defendant can ask a judge to set up a payment plan. The courts specify that the judge will not set up a payment plan unless the defendant (1) has made a payment offer to the collection agency which was not accepted, and (2) provides the court with the collection agency’s written response. Once a defendant sets up a payment plan, he or she may become relicensed as long as payments are being made.

Demographics

Snohomish County is located between the Puget Sound to the west and the Cascade Range to the east, with Skagit County to the north and King County to the south. As of April 1, 2015, the county's population was estimated to be 757,600; the 3rd most populous county in the state. With a land area of roughly 2,087 square miles, it is Washington's 7th most densely populated county with about 362.9 persons per square mile. Approximately 43% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Snohomish County is Everett with about 105,800 residents, followed by Marysville (64,100), Edmonds (40,500), and Lynnwood (36,400). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 531,009.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

Payment Plan / Collections

- Snohomish County District Court specifies that if defendants cannot pay fines within 30 days, they should pursue a payment plan through Signal Credit Management Services, which assesses a $15 account set-up fee and charges a minimum monthly payment based on the amount of the obligation.
- Edmonds Municipal Court specifies that the court will assess an administrative fee of $10 for each infraction placed on a time payment agreement, and provides a link to a time payment application form. The form specifies that all payments must be made within 30 days and that the minimum monthly payment is $50.
- Everett Municipal Court specifies that defendants who need time to pay should fill out the form attached to the ticket and return it to the court within 15 days. The court further specifies that defendants who need time to pay may be given up to 60 days to pay in full. Those needing additional time can make time payment arrangements with Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 set-up fee and monthly monitoring charges. The minimum payment is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance.
- Lynnwood Municipal Court specifies that payment is due in full the day fines and fees are assessed, but that defendants needing time to pay a $10 time pay fee to have up to 120 days to pay in full. If additional time is needed beyond 120 days, a payment plan may be set up with Signal Credit Management Services.
- Marysville Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Mill Creek Violations Bureau does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Monroe Municipal Court does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding payment plans.
- Snohomish County District Courts, and Edmonds, Everett, Lynnwood, and Marysville municipal courts contract with AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc. for collection services.

Local Relicensing Programs

Everett offers a voluntary “Relicensing Assistance Program” for defendants that have a suspended driver’s license and have been cited for the infraction “No Valid License with Identification.” Individuals eligible to participate in the Relicensing Assistance Program need to file a mitigation hearing with the court and contact the office. The program appears to be operated in conjunction with Friendship Diversion. See <https://everettwa.gov/640/Relicensing-Assistance-Program> for more information.

In 2008, using a grant from the Washington State Traffic Safety Commission, the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney’s Office launched a diversion program that offered some offenders an opportunity to get their license reinstated by giving them time to pay court fines instead of racking up a misdemeanor charge and more fines. However, the Snohomish County Prosecutor’s Office does not appear to have any information available to the public online regarding the program if it is still in operation. Instead, the Prosecutor’s Office specifies that getting a driver’s license back after a suspension is not handled by the office, and it refers individuals to the Department of Licensing.

Online Information on Payment Plan / Collections

- Spokane County District Court specifies that monthly time payments are managed for the court by PAR Acceptance and that the monthly payment amount is a function of the amount owed pursuant to a schedule setup by the court, but that PAR has the authority to adjust payment amounts after financial review of ability to pay.
- Airway Heights Municipal Court has payment plan application forms available online and mentions that time payment accounts can be assigned to Pay Assist, which sets payments as a function of the amount owed, and directs individuals to contact the court to arrange a payment plan.
- Cheney Municipal Court mentions that PAR Acceptance manages time pay agreements and directs individuals to contact the court for payment arrangement information. Cheney Municipal Court specifies that payment plans may be managed by PAR Acceptance, and that payment plans for misdemeanor tickets are established by the judge at the time of sentencing and that individuals may request a payment plan for an infraction ticket by request either in person, by mail, or at a hearing.
- Spokane Municipal Court specifies that defendants that payment plans for misdemeanor tickets are established by the judge at the time of sentencing, and that defendants can request a payment plan at a contested or mitigation infraction hearing.

APPENDIX B

- Spokane County, Cheney, and Spokane contract with Valley Empire Collections for collection services.
- Airway Heights contracts with Armada Corp. for collection services.

Local Relicensing Programs

The Spokane City Prosecutor administers a relicensing program. The Relicensing Program is for people whose driving privileges are currently suspended third degree for failing to pay traffic fines in the City of Spokane, County of Spokane, Pend Oreille County, Medical Lake, Airway Heights, and Cheney. According to the program, it provides opportunities for participants to develop a personalized plan to become a licensed and insured driver, to waive collection fees to help with the reinstatement of driving privileges, to combine all traffic offense fine payments from participating jurisdictions into a manageable monthly amount, and to have all participating jurisdictions release the holds on a participant's driving privileges based upon successful progress in completing the program.

To be eligible for the program, prospective participants must meet the following criteria:

- Have resolved all outstanding warrants, alcohol holds, out of jurisdiction holds, child support holds and financial responsibility holds;
- Have suspension of driving privileges in the third degree based upon unpaid fines, whether actually imposed by the court or which resulted from failure to respond or appear.
- Have all fines causing the suspension to be in the City and County of Spokane, or one of the other participating jurisdictions;
- Not have been convicted of a "sex offense", "serious violent offense," or a "most serious offense" as defined in the Revised Code of Washington; and
- Not have a criminal history demonstrating a pattern of felony, assault, drug and/or weapons charges.

Prospective participants are asked to come in person to Relicensing Program office and complete a financial sheet as part of the application process. If a person is subsequently determined to be eligible to participate, he or she pays a $100 non-refundable administrative fee. Monthly payment amounts are determined by income level. Provided that participants fulfill their obligations under the reinstatement plan, the program assists them in restoring driving privileges.

Demographics

Stevens County is located in the northeast corner of Washington along the Canadian border, with Ferry County to the west, Pend Oreille County to the east, and Lincoln and Spokane counties to the south. As of April 1, 2015, the county's population was estimated to be 44,030; the 23rd most populous county in the state. With a land area of roughly 2,478 square miles, the county is Washington's 28th most densely populated county with approximately 17.8 persons per square mile. Approximately 78% of residents live in unincorporated areas. The largest municipality in Stevens County is Colville with about 4,700 residents, followed by Chewelah (2,700), Kettle Falls (1,600), and Northport (300). The total number of licensed drivers residing in the county is reported as 31,228.

Using American Community Survey data, the number of county residents at various income levels relative to poverty status is broken down in the table below:

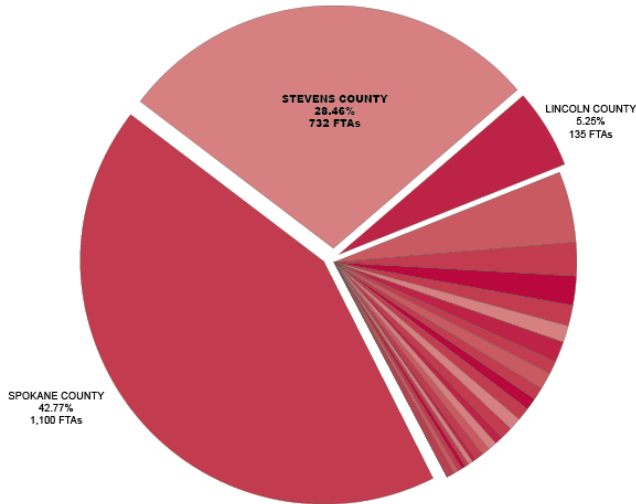

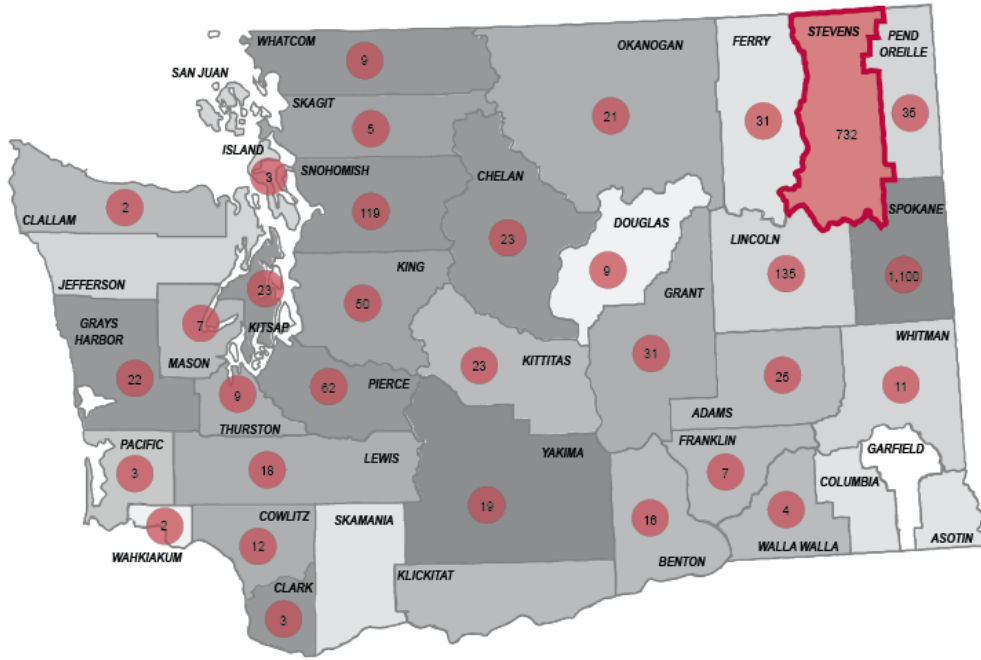

Stevens County
% of Poverty Level	Population: (Total 43,548)	Percent of Population	Income
Below 125%	10,017	23.00%	$15,103
125-200%	7,576	17.40%	$24,164

300-400%	6,687	15.36%	$48,328

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) "Diffuseness"

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the "diffuseness" of all FTAs across the state. In this context, "diffuseness" means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person's county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Stevens County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Payment Plan / Collections

- Whatcom County District Court specifies that defendants may use the provided payment plan request form to request payment arrangements for traffic infractions. The time pay agreement form must be submitted within 30 days of the date of the violation. If it has been over 30 days, defendants are instructed to contact the court for options. The payment plan is offered with monthly payments of $25 and a one-time $10 time pay fee is added to each infraction that is set up on a payment plan.
- Bellingham Municipal Court specifies that defendants should pay the total balance of all fines, fees and penalties within 60 days to avoid additional fees and charges. The court also specifies that defendants who are unable to pay in full at sentencing or within 60 days can make time payment arrangements with Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and sets monthly payments based on the amount of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the total amount owed is $1,000 or more.
- Blaine Municipal Court specifies that it expects defendants to pay on the day of a mitigation or contested hearing. The court also specifies that it offers qualifying defendants the opportunity of paying their fines in several preset monthly installments. The court's payment plan is managed by Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a one-time account set-up fee of $15, monthly management fees, and sets the minimum monthly payment amount as the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance.
- Everson-Nooksack Municipal Court specifies that time payments are managed by Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and sets monthly payments based on the amount of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the total amount owed is $1,000 or more.
- Ferndale Municipal Court specifies that defendants may request time to pay at the time of sentencing and will be required to pay in full within 30 days. Defendants unable to pay in full within 30 days can make time payment arrangements with Signal Credit Management Services, which charges a $15 account set-up fee, a monthly management fee, and sets monthly payments based on the amount of the obligation; the minimum monthly payment is the greater of $25 or 10% of the account balance if the amount owed is under $1,000, and 5% of the account balance if the total amount owed is $1,000 or more.

Measures of Failure to Appear (FTA) “Diffuseness”

Using point-in-time snapshot data provided by the Department of Licensing (DOL) regarding all FTAs, the following map and pie chart were created to graphically represent the “diffuseness” of all FTAs across the state. In this context, “diffuseness” means the proportion of FTA suspensions originating from courts outside a person’s county of residence. Put differently, the map shows the number of all FTAs belonging to individuals identified as residents of Whitman County and the county location of the courts that issued those FTAs. The map or pie chart do not, however, show the number of individuals subject to the FTAs.

The table below was created using different point-in-time snapshot data from DOL focused on persons who only have FTA suspensions, and shows the proportion of persons with multiple FTA suspensions originating from different courts, and whether those courts are in the same or different counties.

Inter- and Intra-Jurisdictional FTA Suspensions for County Residents with Only FTA Suspensions
Court Jurisdiction	County Jurisdiction		Total
	Different Counties	Same County
Different Courts	62 17.97%	18 5.22%	80 23.19%
Same Court	0 0%	265 76.81%	265 76.81%
Total	62 17.97%	283 82.03%	345 100%
