Passed House: 3/9/95, 96-0.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS & INSURANCE

Majority Report: The substitute bill be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass. Signed by 13 members: Representatives L. Thomas, Chairman; Beeksma, Vice Chairman; Smith, Vice Chairman; Grant, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Benton; Campbell; Costa; Dellwo; Dyer; Huff; Mielke; Ogden and Pelesky.

Minority Report: Without recommendation. Signed by 2 members: Representatives Wolfe, Ranking Minority Member; and Kessler.

Staff: Charlie Gavigan (786-7340).

Background: Employers covered by industrial insurance law must insure their responsibilities under the law by self-insuring or by purchasing insurance from the Department of Labor and Industries. Employers that self-insure must meet statutory requirements

An employer who self-insures may reinsure up to 80 percent of its liabilities with any company authorized to transact reinsurance in Washington. The reinsurer may not participate in the administration of the employer's self-insurance program.

Summary of Bill: A subsidiary, holding company, or affiliated legal entity of a reinsurer of a self-insurer's liability under industrial insurance law may participate in the administration of the self-insurance program if the subsidiary, holding company, or affiliated legal entity does not provide reinsurance.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date of Bill: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: This bill will increase competition by increasing the number of organizations that will be able to provide reinsurance. Currently, some companies are precluded by the limitations on reinsurers who are affiliated with administrators.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Melanie Stewart, Washington Self Insurers Association (pro); Lincoln Ferris, Services Group of America (pro); and Bill Baldwin, Insurance Brokers (pro).
