
SENATE BILL 5901

State of Washington

54th Legislature

1995 Regular Session

By Senators Spanel, Haugen and Rasmussen

Read first time 02/13/95. Referred to Committee on Government Operations.

1 AN ACT Relating to authorized uses for the proceeds of the special
2 excise tax on lodging imposed by counties and cities; and amending RCW 3 67.28.270.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 67.28.270 and 1991 c 357 s 4 are each amended to read 6 as follows:

7 In addition to the other uses authorized in this chapter, any city
8 with a population of not less than one thousand people located on one
9 of the San Juan islands or the county within which such city is located 10 may impose the tax and use the tax proceeds provided herein for the 11 acquisition, construction, or operation of publicly owned facilities 12 that are used either for county fairs occurring no more than once a 13 year and not extending over a period of more than seven days or to 14 mitigate the impacts of tourism. Mitigation may include paying all or 15 any part of the cost of acquisition, construction, or operation of 16 public information and educational facilities designed to inform 17 visitors of the historical, cultural, ecological, and environmental 18 resources of the county; of overnight or day use parks used by 19 visitors; of kayak and canoe access to public tidelands; of rest,

1 information, and assembly areas for bicycle visitors; of special
2 signage to inform visitors of local points of interest; and of sport
3 and recreational facilities that provide activities of interest to 4 visitors.
