Brief Description: Participating in the bail bond business.

SB 6545 - DIGEST

Declares that a person who has been convicted of or who has pleaded guilty to a felony under the law of any state may not participate as a director, officer, manager, or employee of any bail bond agency or office thereof, or as an officer own shares in any closely held corporation which has any interest in any bail bond business, unless such conviction or plea of guilty occurred more than ten years prior to the date of such participation.

Provides that any person who violates the provisions of this act or any person who knowingly permits a person who has been convicted of a felony under this act to engage in the bail bond business commits a class C felony, punishable as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.
