Background: Public colleges and universities may collect and retain parking fees from employees, students, and members of the public. Public baccalaureate institutions have specific authorization to adopt rules governing parking and traffic upon land and facilities under their control. The baccalaureate institutions may adjudicate parking infractions and collect and retain any parking fines. Anyone who wishes to challenge a parking fine levied by the institution may appeal the decision in district court. The appeal shall be heard de novo.

There is an account in the state treasury called the state agency parking account. State agencies must deposit all income from parking fees into the account. Institutions of higher education are exempt from this requirement.

Summary of Bill: The governing board of the Spokane Joint Center for Higher Education may adopt rules governing parking and traffic on the center's lands and facilities. The board may establish, collect, and retain parking fees, adjudicate parking infractions, and collect and retain parking fines. Anyone who wishes to challenge a parking fine levied by the board may appeal the decision in a district court in Spokane County. The appeal shall be heard de novo.

The board may impose a voluntary or mandatory transportation fee on faculty and staff working at the Riverpoint Higher Education Park and on students attending classes there. Any fee must be used to support transportation demand management programs that reduce the demand for parking and promote alternatives to single-occupant vehicles. If a mandatory fee is charged to students, a fee of at least that amount must be charged to faculty and staff. The maximum fee is described. The board cannot impose a transportation fee on any student who is already paying a transportation fee to the institution of higher education where the student is enrolled.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on February 26, 1997.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: The Spokane Joint Center for Higher Education falls somewhere between a state agency and an institution of higher education. This legislation permits the center to have the same parking authority as baccalaureate institutions. At the Riverside site in Spokane, the center manages college facilities for Washington State University, Eastern Washington University, and the Spokane Intercollegiate Research and Technology Institute. It needs the authority to provide and maintain parking facilities for the universities and the institute.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Terry Novak, Spokane Joint Center for Higher Education.
