

SB 5764 - DIGEST

Provides immunity from civil actions for a health professional making a good faith claim of unprofessional conduct or inability to practice safely against another health professional.