

HB 2745 - DIGEST

Declares that port districts participating in a Washington public ports association shall have an equal voice in the governance and decision-making processes of the association.

Provides that the amount of any dues and assessments shall be determined by the governing body of a Washington public ports association and must be assessed in an equal dollar amount for each port district participating in the association.