

HB 3348 - DIGEST

Recognizes that, except for buildings on the capitol campus, there is no policy or process for how state buildings, facilities, or infrastructure are named. It is the intent of the legislature that policy be developed that would prohibit naming buildings, facilities, or infrastructure after persons until ten years after their death.