1 On page 3, line 4, after "(3)" insert "If a school district does 2 not enter an interlocal agreement or contract with an educational 3 service district, community or technical college, other public entity,
4 or community-based organization to provide a dropout reengagement
5 program for eligible students residing in the district, the 6 educational service district, community or technical college, other 7 public entity, or community-based organization may petition a school 8 district other than the resident school district to enroll the 9 eligible students under RCW 28A.225.220 through 28A.225.230 and enter 10 the interlocal agreement or contract with the petitioning entity to 11 provide a dropout reengagement program for the eligible students.

12 (4)"

13

EFFECT: If a school district does not contract to provide a dropout reengagement program for its resident students, an ESD, community or technical college, other public entity, or community-based organization can petition another school district to enroll those students under the "Choice" laws and contract with the petitioning entity to provide a program.
