

HB 1006 - DIGEST

Directs a governmental or business entity that sells or issues to a consumer an identification device that is not disabled, deactivated, or removed at the point of sale or issuance to label the identification device.