

HB 3088 - DIGEST

Recognizes the great degree to which the state and its local governments depend on the revenues and jobs generated from the construction and sale of new homes.

Declares an intent to help jumpstart the state economy by establishing a moratorium on the imposition of impact fees.