EFFECT: For the purposes of satisfying the requirements of an enforceable surrogacy contract under the bill: (a) the health insurance policy for the woman acting as a surrogate must extend for longer than eight weeks, if necessary, after the birth of the child; and (b) the long-term disability insurance must be applicable for as long as the pregnancy related disability lasts, including for life-long disabilities.

The provision allowing the intended parent or parents to pay benefits to the woman acting as a surrogate for a pregnancy related disability, if long-term disability insurance cannot be obtained, is removed.
