In 1989 the Legislature authorized the Korean War Memorial, situated near the capitol on the East Campus Plaza.

Summary of Bill: The Legislature declares that July 27 be recognized as National Korean War Veterans Armistice Day. That date is not to be considered a legal holiday for any purpose.

The POW/MIA flag, together with the U.S. and Washington flags, must be displayed by public entities on that date.

The day on which the POW/MIA flag is to be displayed with the U.S. and Washington flags in honor of National POW/MIA Recognition Day is specified as the third Friday in September.
