
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 1585

State of Washington

62nd Legislature

2011 Regular Session

By House Public Safety & Emergency Preparedness (originally sponsored by Representatives Eddy, Springer, and Ryu)

READ FIRST TIME 02/16/11.

1 AN ACT Relating to intrastate mutual aid in the event of 2 emergencies; amending RCW 38.52.040; and adding a new chapter to Title
3 38 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The definitions in this section apply 6 throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

7 (1) "Assistance" means emergency responders and resources provided 8 by a responding member jurisdiction in response to a request from a 9 requesting member jurisdiction.

10 (2) "Department" means the state military department.

11 (3) "Emergency" means an event or set of circumstances that: (a) 12 Demand immediate action to preserve public health, protect life, 13 protect public property, or to provide relief to any stricken community 14 overtaken by such occurrence; or (b) reach such a dimension or degree 15 of destructiveness as to warrant the governor declaring a state of 16 emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.010.

17 (4) "Emergency responder" means an employee of a responding member 18 jurisdiction who is designated in writing by that responding member 19 jurisdiction as possessing skills, qualifications, training, knowledge,

1 or experience that may be needed, pursuant to a request for assistance
2 under this chapter, for: (a) Response, mitigation, or recovery 3 activities related to an emergency; or (b) participation in drills or 4 exercises in preparation for an emergency.

5 (5) "Operational control" means the limited authority to direct 6 tasks, assignments, and use of assistance provided pursuant to a 7 request for assistance under this chapter to address: (a) Response,
8 mitigation, or recovery activities related to an emergency; or (b)
9 participation in drills or exercises in preparation for an emergency.

10 "Operational control" does not include any right, privilege, or benefit 11 of ownership or employment such as disposition, compensation, wages, 12 salary, pensions, health benefits, leave, seniority, discipline, 13 promotion, hiring, or firing.

14 (6) "Political subdivision" means any county, city, or town in the 15 state of Washington.

16 (7) "Requesting member jurisdiction" means a member jurisdiction 17 that requests assistance from another member jurisdiction under this 18 chapter.

19 (8) "Resources" includes supplies, materials, equipment,
20 facilities, energy, services, information, systems, and other assets 21 except for emergency responders that may be needed, pursuant to a 22 request for assistance under this chapter, for: (a) Response,
23 mitigation, or recovery activities related to an emergency; or (b)
24 participation in drills or exercises in preparation for an emergency.

25 (9) "Responding member jurisdiction" means a member jurisdiction 26 providing or intending to provide assistance to a requesting member 27 jurisdiction under this chapter.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The intrastate mutual aid system is 29 established to provide for mutual assistance in an emergency among 30 political subdivisions and federally recognized Indian tribes that 31 choose to participate as member jurisdictions.

32 (2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, member 33 jurisdictions of the intrastate mutual aid system include:

- 34 (a) A political subdivision; and
- 35 (b) Any federally recognized Indian tribe located within the 36 boundaries of the state of Washington upon receipt by the department of 1 a tribal government resolution declaring its intention to be a member 2 jurisdiction in the intrastate mutual aid system under this chapter.

3 (3)(a) A member jurisdiction is released from membership in the 4 intrastate mutual aid system established under this chapter upon 5 receipt by the department of a resolution or ordinance declaring that 6 the member jurisdiction elects not to participate in the system.

7 (b) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to affect other mutual 8 aid systems or agreements otherwise authorized by law, including the 9 Washington state fire services mobilization plan and the law
10 enforcement mobilization plan under chapter 43.43 RCW, nor preclude a 11 political subdivision or Indian tribe from entering or participating in 12 those mutual aid systems or agreements.

13 (4) Mutual assistance may be requested by, and provided to, member 14 jurisdictions under this chapter for: (a) Response, mitigation, or 15 recovery activities related to an emergency; or (b) participation in 16 drills or exercises in preparation for an emergency.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A member jurisdiction may request assistance 18 from other member jurisdictions under the intrastate mutual aid system 19 for response, mitigation, or recovery activities related to an 20 emergency, or to participate in drills or exercises in preparation for 21 an emergency, subject to each of the following provisions:

22 (1) Prior to requesting assistance, a requesting member 23 jurisdiction must: (a) Have determined an emergency exists within its 24 territorial limits consistent with applicable law, rule, regulation, 25 code, ordinance, resolution, or other applicable legal authority; or 26 (b) anticipate undertaking drills or exercises in preparation for an 27 emergency.

28 (2) The chief executive officer of a requesting member 29 jurisdiction, or authorized designee, must request assistance directly 30 from the chief executive officer, or authorized designee, of another 31 member jurisdiction. If this request is verbal, it must be confirmed 32 in writing within thirty days after the date of the request.

33 (3) A responding member jurisdiction may withhold or withdraw 34 requested assistance at any time and for any reason, in its sole 35 discretion.

36 (4) A responding member jurisdiction shall designate in writing all 37 assistance it provides to a requesting member jurisdiction at the time

1 provided consistent with the guidelines and procedures developed by the 2 intrastate mutual aid committee, and deliver copies of this 3 documentation to the requesting member jurisdiction within thirty days 4 after the assistance is provided.

5 (5) The requesting member jurisdiction only has operational control 6 of assistance provided under this chapter, which may not interfere with 7 a responding member jurisdiction's right to withdraw assistance.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An emergency responder holding a license, 9 certificate, or other permit evidencing qualification in a 10 professional, mechanical, or other skill, issued by the state of 11 Washington or a political subdivision thereof, is deemed to be 12 licensed, certified, or permitted in the requesting member jurisdiction 13 for the duration of the emergency, drill, or exercise, subject to any 14 limitations and conditions the chief executive officer of the 15 requesting member jurisdiction may prescribe in writing.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An emergency responder designated by a 17 responding member jurisdiction under section 3(4) of this act, who dies 18 or sustains an injury while providing assistance to a requesting member 19 jurisdiction as an emergency responder under this chapter, is entitled 20 to receive only the benefits otherwise authorized by law for death or 21 injury sustained in the course of employment with the responding member 22 jurisdiction. Any such benefits provided by a responding member 23 jurisdiction to an emergency responder must be included in the true and 24 full value of assistance provided for purposes of reimbursement under 25 section 7 of this act.

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An emergency responder is not an employee of 27 the requesting member jurisdiction and is not entitled to any right, 28 privilege, or benefit of employment from the requesting member 29 jurisdiction, including but not limited to, compensation, wages, 30 salary, leave, pensions, health, or other advantage.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A requesting member jurisdiction shall 32 reimburse a responding member jurisdiction for the true and full value 33 of all assistance provided under this chapter. However, if authorized

1 by law, a responding member jurisdiction may donate assistance provided 2 under this chapter to a requesting member jurisdiction.

3 (2) If a dispute regarding reimbursement arises between member 4 jurisdictions, the member jurisdiction asserting the dispute shall 5 provide written notice to the other identifying the reimbursement
6 issues in dispute. If the dispute is not resolved within ninety days 7 after receipt of the dispute notice by the other party, either party to 8 the dispute may invoke binding arbitration to resolve the reimbursement 9 dispute by giving written notice to the other party. Within thirty 10 days after receipt of the notice invoking binding arbitration, each 11 party shall furnish the other a list of acceptable arbitrators. The 12 parties shall select an arbitrator; failing to agree on an arbitrator, 13 each party shall select one arbitrator and the two arbitrators shall 14 select a third arbitrator for an arbitration panel. Costs of the 15 arbitration, including compensation for the arbitrator's services, must 16 be borne equally by the parties participating in the arbitration and 17 each party bears its own costs and expenses, including legal fees and 18 witness expenses, in connection with the arbitration proceeding.

19 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. For purposes of tort liability or immunity, 20 an emergency responder of a responding member jurisdiction is 21 considered an agent of the requesting member jurisdiction. No 22 responding member jurisdiction or its officers or employees providing 23 assistance under this chapter is liable for any act or omission while 24 providing or attempting to provide assistance under this chapter in 25 good faith. For purposes of this section, good faith does not include 26 willful misconduct, gross negligence, or recklessness.

27 Sec. 9. RCW 38.52.040 and 1995 c 269 s 1202 are each amended to 28 read as follows:

29 (1) There is hereby created the emergency management council 30 (hereinafter called the council), to consist of not more than seventeen 31 members who shall be appointed by the governor. The membership of the 32 council shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of city 33 and county governments, sheriffs and police chiefs, the Washington 34 state patrol, the military department, the department of ecology, state 35 and local fire chiefs, seismic safety experts, state and local 36 emergency management directors, search and rescue volunteers, medical

1 professions who have expertise in emergency medical care, building
2 officials, and private industry. The representatives of private 3 industry shall include persons knowledgeable in emergency and hazardous 4 materials management. The council members shall elect a chairman from 5 within the council membership. The members of the council shall serve 6 without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their travel expenses
7 incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 8 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

9 (2) The emergency management council shall advise the governor and 10 the director on all matters pertaining to state and local emergency 11 management. The council may appoint such ad hoc committees, 12 subcommittees, and working groups as are required to develop specific 13 recommendations for the improvement of emergency management practices, 14 standards, policies, or procedures. The council shall ensure that the 15 governor receives an annual assessment of statewide emergency 16 preparedness including, but not limited to, specific progress on hazard 17 mitigation and reduction efforts, implementation of seismic safety 18 improvements, reduction of flood hazards, and coordination of hazardous 19 materials planning and response activities. The council or a 20 subcommittee thereof shall periodically convene in special session and 21 serve during those sessions as the state emergency response commission 22 required by P.L. 99-499, the emergency planning and community right-to-23 know act. When sitting in session as the state emergency response 24 commission, the council shall confine its deliberations to those items 25 specified in federal statutes and state administrative rules governing 26 the coordination of hazardous materials policy. The council shall 27 review administrative rules governing state and local emergency 28 management practices and recommend necessary revisions to the director.

29 (3)(a) The intrastate mutual aid committee is created and is a 30 subcommittee of the emergency management council. The intrastate 31 mutual aid committee consists of not more than five members who must be 32 appointed by the council chair from council membership. The chair of 33 the intrastate mutual aid committee is the military department 34 representative appointed as a member of the council. Meetings of the 35 intrastate mutual aid committee must be held at least annually.

36 (b) In support of the intrastate mutual aid system established in 37 chapter 38.--- RCW (the new chapter created in section 11 of this act), 38 the intrastate mutual aid committee shall develop and update guidelines

1 and procedures to facilitate implementation of the intrastate mutual 2 aid system by member jurisdictions, including but not limited to the 3 following: Projected or anticipated costs; checklists and forms for 4 requesting and providing assistance; recordkeeping; reimbursement 5 procedures; and other implementation issues. These guidelines and 6 procedures are not subject to the rule making requirements of chapter
7 34.05 RCW.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its 9 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the 10 remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other 11 persons or circumstances is not affected.

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 8 of this act constitute 13 a new chapter in Title 38 RCW.
