State of Washington

62nd Legislature

2011 Regular Session

By Senators Hatfield and Shin

Read first time 02/21/11. Referred to Committee on Government Operations, Tribal Relations & Elections.

1 AN ACT Relating to consolidating the department of archaeology and 2 historic preservation into the office of lieutenant governor; amending 3 RCW 43.17.010, 43.17.020, and 43.334.020; adding a new section to 4 chapter 43.15 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.334 RCW; creating 5 a new section; repealing RCW 43.334.030, 43.334.040, 43.334.050, and 6 43.334.900; and providing an effective date.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.15 RCW
9 to read as follows:

10 (1) On July 1, 2012, all powers, duties, and functions of the 11 department of archaeology and historic preservation are transferred to 12 the office of lieutenant governor.

13 (2) On July 1, 2012, all department of archaeology and historic 14 preservation employees are transferred to and become employees of the 15 office of lieutenant governor.

16 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.334 RCW
17 to read as follows:

1 (1) The office of archaeology and historic preservation is created
2 within the office of lieutenant governor.

3 (2) The office of archaeology and historic preservation within the 4 office of lieutenant governor assumes all powers, duties, and functions
5 of the department of archaeology and historic preservation.

6 (3) All department of archaeology and historic preservation
7 personnel are employed, supervised, and controlled by the office of 8 lieutenant governor.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.334 RCW
10 to read as follows:

11 (1) The department of archaeology and historic preservation is 12 hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby 13 transferred to the office of lieutenant governor. All references to 14 the director or the department of archaeology and historic preservation 15 in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the 16 director or the office of lieutenant governor.

17 (2)(a) All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files,
18 papers, or written material in the possession of the department of 19 archaeology and historic preservation shall be delivered to the custody
20 of the office of lieutenant governor. All cabinets, furniture, office 21 equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the 22 department of archaeology and historic preservation shall be made
23 available to the office of lieutenant governor. All funds, credits, or 24 other assets held by the department of archaeology and historic 25 preservation shall be assigned to the office of lieutenant governor.

26 (b) Any appropriations made to the department of archaeology and 27 historic preservation shall, on the effective date of this section, be 28 transferred and credited to the office of lieutenant governor.

29 (c) If any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel,
30 funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other 31 tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the 32 performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of 33 financial management shall make a determination as to the proper 34 allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

35 (3) All employees of the department of archaeology and historic 36 preservation are transferred to the jurisdiction of the office of 37 lieutenant governor. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW,

1 the state civil service law, are assigned to the office of lieutenant 2 governor to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly,
3 without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be 4 appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing 5 state civil service.

6 (4) All rules and all pending business before the department of 7 archaeology and historic preservation shall be continued and acted upon 8 by the office of lieutenant governor. All existing contracts and 9 obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the 10 office of lieutenant governor.

11 (5) The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of 12 the department of archaeology and historic preservation shall not 13 affect the validity of any act performed before the effective date of 14 this section.

15 (6) If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the 16 transfers directed by this section, the director of financial 17 management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, 18 the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make 19 the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation
20 accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

21 (7) Nothing contained in this section may be construed to alter any 22 existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing 23 collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or 24 until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel 25 resources board as provided by law.

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The office of lieutenant governor must:

27 (a) Establish a transition plan for the orderly implementation of 28 this act, including: Addressing personnel issues relating to the 29 transfer and facilitating the transfer of powers, duties, and 30 functions, property and equipment, records, contracts, and funding from 31 the department of archaeology and historic preservation to the office
32 of lieutenant governor. The office of lieutenant governor must consult 33 with the department of archaeology and historic preservation, the 34 department of personnel, and the office of financial management in 35 developing the transition plan; and

36 (b) Present recommendations to the legislature, in the form of

1 draft legislation, regarding any further statutory changes necessary to 2 implement this act.

3 (2) The transition plan and recommendations required by subsection 4 (1) of this section must be presented to the appropriate committees of 5 the legislature by November 1, 2011.
