
HOUSE BILL 1863

State of Washington

63rd Legislature

2013 Regular Session

By Representatives Stonier, Chandler, Sells, Haler, Fitzgibbon, Ross, Bergquist, Goodman, Carlyle, Hope, Reykdal, Ormsby, Stanford, Green, Ryu, Pollet, and Freeman

Read first time 02/13/13. Referred to Committee on Labor & Workforce Development.

1 AN ACT Relating to allowing the department of labor and industries
2 to provide information about scholarships available to children and 3 spouses of certain injured or deceased workers; adding a new section to 4 chapter 42.52 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 51.04 RCW.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 42.52 RCW
7 to read as follows:

8 This chapter does not prohibit the department of labor and 9 industries from providing information about scholarship opportunities 10 offered by nonprofit organizations and available to children and 11 spouses of workers who suffered an injury in the course of employment 12 resulting in death or permanent total disability. The department of 13 labor and industries may, in its sole discretion, provide information 14 about one or more scholarship opportunities. The cost of printing and 15 inserting materials, any additional mailing costs, and any other 16 related costs must be borne by the scholarship organization.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 51.04 RCW
18 to read as follows:

1 The department may provide information about scholarship
2 opportunities offered by nonprofit organizations and available to 3 children and spouses of workers who suffered an injury in the course of 4 employment resulting in death or permanent total disability. The 5 department may, in its sole discretion, provide information about one
6 or more scholarship opportunities. The cost of printing and inserting 7 materials, any additional mailing costs, and any other related costs
8 must be borne by the scholarship organization.
