
SENATE BILL 5176

State of Washington

63rd Legislature

2013 Regular Session

By Senators Hargrove, Carrell, and Hewitt

Read first time 01/22/13. Referred to Committee on Human Services & Corrections.

1 AN ACT Relating to criminal incompetency and civil commitment;
2 amending RCW 10.77.086, 10.77.0845, 10.77.088, 10.77.270, 71.05.235, 3 71.05.280, 71.05.320, 71.05.425, and 71.05.360; and creating a new 4 section.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the public is 7 placed at grave risk by a small class of individuals who commit
8 repeated violent acts against others while suffering from the effects 9 of a mental condition and/or developmental disability that both 10 contributes to their criminal behaviors and renders them legally 11 incompetent to be held accountable for those behaviors. These 12 individuals continue to have the opportunity to commit serious violent 13 crimes because the primary statutory mechanisms designed to protect the 14 public from their violent behavior, criminal commitment to a penal 15 institution, or long-term commitment of the criminally insane, are 16 unavailable due to the legal incompetence of these individuals to stand 17 trial. The existing system of short-term commitments under the 18 Washington's involuntary treatment act is insufficient to protect the 19 public from the violent acts of these individuals because it fails to

1 recognize the important link in some individuals between continued
2 incompetence, a mental condition, and the risk to commit further acts
3 of violence. As currently enacted, the involuntary treatment act 4 presents an unacceptable risk that violent, incompetent, and mentally 5 ill individuals will be released back into society to commit further 6 acts of violence whereupon the cycle of short-term commitment and 7 violence repeats itself due to continued incompetence that is related 8 to the offender's underlying mental condition and/or developmental 9 disability. The legislature finds that changes to the involuntary 10 treatment act to account for this small class of individuals is 11 necessary in order to serve Washington's compelling interest in 12 protecting citizens from the repeated violent acts of a small group of 13 mentally ill and/or developmentally disabled incompetent offenders.

14 Sec. 2. RCW 10.77.086 and 2012 c 256 s 6 are each amended to read
15 as follows:

16 (1)(a) If the defendant is charged with a felony and determined to 17 be incompetent, until he or she has regained the competency necessary 18 to understand the proceedings against him or her and assist in his or 19 her own defense, or has been determined unlikely to regain competency 20 pursuant to RCW 10.77.084(1)(b), but in any event for a period of no 21 longer than ninety days, the court:

22 (i) Shall commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary who 23 shall place such defendant in an appropriate facility of the department 24 for evaluation and treatment; or

25 (ii) May alternatively order the defendant to undergo evaluation 26 and treatment at some other facility as determined by the department, 27 or under the guidance and control of a professional person.

28 (b) For a defendant whose highest charge is a class C felony, or a 29 class B felony that is not classified as violent under RCW 9.94A.030, 30 the maximum time allowed for the initial period of commitment for 31 competency restoration is forty-five days.

32 (2) On or before expiration of the initial period of commitment 33 under subsection (1) of this section the court shall conduct a hearing, 34 at which it shall determine whether or not the defendant is 35 incompetent.

36 (3) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that a 37 defendant charged with a felony is incompetent, the court shall have

1 the option of extending the order of commitment or alternative 2 treatment for an additional period of ninety days, but the court must 3 at the time of extension set a date for a prompt hearing to determine 4 the defendant's competency before the expiration of the second 5 restoration period. The defendant, the defendant's attorney, or the 6 prosecutor has the right to demand that the hearing be before a jury.
7 No extension shall be ordered for a second or third restoration period 8 as provided in subsection (4) of this section if the defendant's 9 incompetence has been determined by the secretary to be solely the 10 result of a developmental disability which is such that competence is 11 not reasonably likely to be regained during an extension.

12 (4) For persons charged with a felony, at the hearing upon the 13 expiration of the second restoration period or at the end of the first 14 restoration period, in the case of a defendant with a developmental 15 disability, if the jury or court finds that the defendant is 16 incompetent, the charges shall be dismissed without prejudice, and the 17 court shall (~~either order the release of the defendant or~~) order the 18 defendant be committed to a state hospital (~~or secure mental health~~ 19 ~~facility~~) as defined in RCW 72.23.020 for up to seventy-two hours 20 starting from admission to the facility, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, 21 and holidays, for evaluation for the purpose of filing a civil 22 commitment petition under chapter 71.05 RCW. The criminal charges 23 shall not be dismissed if the court or jury finds that: (a) The 24 defendant (i) is a substantial danger to other persons; or (ii)
25 presents a substantial likelihood of committing criminal acts 26 jeopardizing public safety or security; and (b) there is a substantial 27 probability that the defendant will regain competency within a 28 reasonable period of time. In the event that the court or jury makes 29 such a finding, the court may extend the period of commitment for up to 30 an additional six months.

31 Sec. 3. RCW 10.77.0845 and 2012 c 256 s 7 are each amended to read
32 as follows:

33 (1) A defendant found incompetent by the court under RCW 10.77.084
34 must be evaluated at the direction of the secretary and a determination 35 made whether the defendant is an individual with a developmental 36 disability. Such evaluation and determination must be accomplished as

1 soon as possible following the court's placement of the defendant in 2 the custody of the secretary.

3 (2) When appropriate, and subject to available funds, if the 4 defendant is determined to be an individual with a developmental 5 disability, he or she may be placed in a program specifically reserved 6 for the treatment and training of persons with developmental 7 disabilities where the defendant has the right to habilitation 8 according to an individualized service plan specifically developed for 9 the particular needs of the defendant. A copy of the evaluation must 10 be sent to the program.

11 (a) The program must be separate from programs serving persons 12 involved in any other treatment or habilitation program.

13 (b) The program must be appropriately secure under the 14 circumstances and must be administered by developmental disabilities 15 professionals who shall direct the habilitation efforts.

16 (c) The program must provide an environment affording security 17 appropriate with the charged criminal behavior and necessary to protect 18 the public safety.

19 (3) The department may limit admissions of such persons to this 20 specialized program in order to ensure that expenditures for services 21 do not exceed amounts appropriated by the legislature and allocated by 22 the department for such services.

23 (4) The department may establish admission priorities in the event 24 that the number of eligible persons exceeds the limits set by the 25 department.

26 (5) If access to this program is not available, the department
27 shall enroll the person into developmental disability division benefits 28 in the community based upon the finding made in the evaluation that the 29 person is an individual with a developmental disability.

30 Sec. 4. RCW 10.77.088 and 2007 c 375 s 5 are each amended to read
31 as follows:

32 (1)(a) If the defendant is charged with a nonfelony crime which is 33 a serious offense as identified in RCW 10.77.092 and found by the court 34 to be not competent, then the court shall order the secretary to place 35 the defendant:

36 (i) At a secure mental health facility in the custody of the 37 department or an agency designated by the department for mental health

1 treatment and restoration of competency. The placement shall not 2 exceed fourteen days in addition to any unused time of the evaluation 3 under RCW 10.77.060. The court shall compute this total period and 4 include its computation in the order. The fourteen-day period plus any 5 unused time of the evaluation under RCW 10.77.060 shall be considered 6 to include only the time the defendant is actually at the facility and 7 shall be in addition to reasonable time for transport to or from the 8 facility;

9 (ii) On conditional release for up to ninety days for mental health 10 treatment and restoration of competency; or

11 (iii) Any combination of this subsection.

12 (b)(i) If the proceedings are dismissed under RCW 10.77.084 and the 13 defendant was on conditional release at the time of dismissal, the 14 court shall order the designated mental health professional within that 15 county to evaluate the defendant pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW. The 16 evaluation may be conducted in any location chosen by the professional.

17 (ii) If the defendant was in custody and not on conditional release 18 at the time of dismissal, the defendant shall be detained and sent to 19 ~~((an evaluation and treatment facility))~~ a state hospital as defined in 20 RCW 72.23.020 for up to seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, 21 Sundays, and holidays, for evaluation for purposes of filing a petition 22 under chapter 71.05 RCW. The seventy-two-hour period shall commence 23 upon the next nonholiday weekday following the court order and shall 24 run to the end of the last nonholiday weekday within the seventy-two-25 hour period.

26 (2) If the defendant is charged with a nonfelony crime that is not 27 a serious offense as defined in RCW 10.77.092:

28 The court may stay or dismiss proceedings and detain the defendant 29 for sufficient time to allow the designated mental health professional 30 to evaluate the defendant and consider initial detention proceedings 31 under chapter 71.05 RCW. The court must give notice to all parties at 32 least twenty-four hours before the dismissal of any proceeding under 33 this subsection, and provide an opportunity for a hearing on whether to 34 dismiss the proceedings.

35 Sec. 5. RCW 10.77.270 and 2010 c 263 s 1 are each amended to read
36 as follows:

37 (1) The secretary shall establish an independent public safety

1 review panel for the purpose of advising the secretary and the courts 2 with respect to persons who have been found not guilty by reason of 3 insanity, or persons committed under the involuntary treatment act 4 where the court has made a special finding under RCW 71.05.280(3)(b).
5 The panel shall provide advice regarding all recommendations to the 6 secretary, decisions by the secretary, or actions pending in court:
7 (a) For a change in commitment status; (b) to allow furloughs or 8 temporary leaves accompanied by staff; (c) to not seek further 9 commitment terms under RCW 71.05.320; or ~~((e))~~ (d) to permit movement 10 about the grounds of the treatment facility, with or without the 11 accompaniment of staff.

12 (2) The members of the public safety review panel shall be 13 appointed by the governor for a renewable term of three years and shall 14 include the following:

- 15 (a) A psychiatrist;
- 16 (b) A licensed clinical psychologist;
- 17 (c) A representative of the department of corrections;
- 18 (d) A prosecutor or a representative of a prosecutor's association;
- 19 (e) A representative of law enforcement or a law enforcement
20 association;
- 21 (f) A consumer and family advocate representative; and
- 22 (g) A public defender or a representative of a defender's
23 association.

24 (3) Thirty days prior to issuing a recommendation for conditional 25 release under RCW 10.77.150 or forty-five days prior to issuing a 26 recommendation for release under RCW 10.77.200, the secretary shall 27 submit its recommendation with the committed person's application and 28 the department's risk assessment to the public safety review panel.
29 The public safety review panel shall complete an independent assessment 30 of the public safety risk entailed by the secretary's proposed 31 conditional release recommendation or release recommendation and 32 provide this assessment in writing to the secretary. The public safety 33 review panel may, within funds appropriated for this purpose, request 34 additional evaluations of the committed person. The public safety 35 review panel may indicate whether it is in agreement with the 36 secretary's recommendation, or whether it would issue a different 37 recommendation. The secretary shall provide the panel's assessment 38 when it is received along with any supporting documentation, including

1 all previous reports of evaluations of the committed person in the 2 person's hospital record, to the court, prosecutor in the county that 3 ordered the person's commitment, and counsel for the committed person.

4 (4) The secretary shall notify the public safety review panel at 5 appropriate intervals concerning any changes in the commitment or 6 custody status of persons found not guilty by reason of insanity. The 7 panel shall have access, upon request, to a committed person's complete 8 hospital record.

9 (5) The department shall provide administrative and financial 10 support to the public safety review panel. The department, in 11 consultation with the public safety review panel, may adopt rules to 12 implement this section.

13 (6) By December 1, 2014, the public safety review panel shall 14 report to the appropriate legislative committees the following:

15 (a) Whether the public safety review panel has observed a change in 16 statewide consistency of evaluations and decisions concerning changes 17 in the commitment status of persons found not guilty by reason of 18 insanity;

19 (b) Whether the public safety review panel should be given the 20 authority to make release decisions and monitor release conditions;

21 (c) Whether further changes in the law are necessary to enhance 22 public safety in cases where incompetency thwarts operation of the 23 criminal justice system and/or long-term commitment of the criminally 24 insane; and

25 (d) Any other issues the public safety review panel deems relevant.

26 Sec. 6. RCW 71.05.235 and 2008 c 213 s 5 are each amended to read
27 as follows:

28 (1) If an individual is referred to a designated mental health
29 professional under RCW 10.77.088(1)(b)(i), the designated mental health 30 professional shall examine the individual within forty-eight hours. If 31 the designated mental health professional determines it is not 32 appropriate to detain the individual or petition for a ninety-day less 33 restrictive alternative under RCW 71.05.230(4), that decision shall be 34 immediately presented to the superior court for hearing. The court 35 shall hold a hearing to consider the decision of the designated mental 36 health professional not later than the next judicial day. At the 37 hearing the superior court shall review the determination of the

1 designated mental health professional and determine whether an order
2 should be entered requiring the person to be evaluated at an evaluation 3 and treatment facility. No person referred to an evaluation and 4 treatment facility may be held at the facility longer than seventy-two 5 hours.

6 (2) If an individual is placed in (~~an evaluation and treatment~~ 7 ~~facility~~) a state hospital as defined in RCW 72.23.020, under RCW 8 10.77.088(1)(b)(ii) or 10.77.086(4), a professional person shall 9 evaluate the individual for purposes of determining whether to file a 10 ninety-day inpatient or outpatient petition under chapter 71.05 RCW.
11 Before expiration of the seventy-two hour evaluation period authorized 12 under RCW 10.77.088(1)(b)(ii) or 10.77.086(4), the professional person 13 shall file a petition or, if the recommendation of the professional 14 person is to release the individual, present his or her recommendation 15 to the superior court of the county in which the criminal charge was 16 dismissed. The superior court shall review the recommendation not 17 later than forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and 18 holidays, after the recommendation is presented. If the court rejects 19 the recommendation to unconditionally release the individual, the court 20 may order the individual detained at a designated evaluation and 21 treatment facility for not more than a seventy-two hour evaluation and 22 treatment period and direct the individual to appear at a surety 23 hearing before that court within seventy-two hours, or the court may 24 release the individual but direct the individual to appear at a surety 25 hearing set before that court within eleven days, at which time the 26 prosecutor may file a petition under this chapter for ninety-day 27 inpatient or outpatient treatment. If a petition is filed by the 28 prosecutor, the court may order that the person named in the petition 29 be detained at the evaluation and treatment facility that performed the 30 evaluation under this subsection or order the respondent to be in 31 outpatient treatment. If a petition is filed but the individual fails 32 to appear in court for the surety hearing, the court shall order that 33 a mental health professional or peace officer shall take such person or 34 cause such person to be taken into custody and placed in an evaluation 35 and treatment facility to be brought before the court the next judicial 36 day after detention. Upon the individual's first appearance in court 37 after a petition has been filed, proceedings under RCW 71.05.310 and 38 71.05.320 shall commence. For an individual subject to this

1 subsection, the prosecutor or professional person may directly file a 2 petition for ninety-day inpatient or outpatient treatment and no
3 petition for initial detention or fourteen-day detention is required 4 before such a petition may be filed.

5 The court shall conduct the hearing on the petition filed under 6 this subsection within five judicial days of the date the petition is 7 filed. The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of 8 the person named in the petition or the person's attorney, for good 9 cause shown, which continuance shall not exceed five additional 10 judicial days. If the person named in the petition requests a jury 11 trial, the trial shall commence within ten judicial days of the date of 12 the filing of the petition. The burden of proof shall be by clear, 13 cogent, and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioner. The 14 person shall be present at such proceeding, which shall in all respects 15 accord with the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and the 16 rules of evidence pursuant to RCW 71.05.360 (8) and (9).

17 During the proceeding the person named in the petition shall 18 continue to be detained and treated until released by order of the 19 court. If no order has been made within thirty days after the filing 20 of the petition, not including any extensions of time requested by the 21 detained person or his or her attorney, the detained person shall be 22 released.

23 (3) If a designated mental health professional or the professional 24 person and prosecuting attorney for the county in which the criminal 25 charge was dismissed or attorney general, as appropriate, stipulate 26 that the individual does not present a likelihood of serious harm or is 27 not gravely disabled, the hearing under this section is not required 28 and the individual, if in custody, shall be released.

29 (4) The individual shall have the rights specified in RCW 71.05.360 30 (8) and (9).

31 Sec. 7. RCW 71.05.280 and 2008 c 213 s 6 are each amended to read
32 as follows:

33 At the expiration of the fourteen-day period of intensive treatment 34 or a restoration period under RCW 10.77.086, a person may be confined 35 for further treatment pursuant to RCW 71.05.320 if:

36 (1) Such person after having been taken into custody for evaluation 37 and treatment has threatened, attempted, or inflicted: (a) Physical

1 harm upon the person of another or himself or herself, or substantial 2 damage upon the property of another, and (b) as a result of mental 3 disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm; or 4 (2) Such person was taken into custody as a result of conduct in 5 which he or she attempted or inflicted physical harm upon the person of 6 another or himself or herself, or substantial damage upon the property 7 of others, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder, a 8 likelihood of serious harm; or

9 (3) Such person has been determined to be incompetent and criminal 10 charges have been dismissed pursuant to RCW 10.77.086(4), and has 11 committed acts constituting a felony, and as a result of a mental 12 disorder or developmental disability, presents a substantial likelihood 13 of repeating similar acts.

14 (a) In any proceeding pursuant to this subsection it shall not be 15 necessary to show intent, willfulness, or state of mind as an element 16 of the crime;

17 (b) For any person subject to commitment under this subsection
18 where the charge underlying the finding of incompetence is for a felony 19 classified as violent under RCW 9.94A.030, the court shall further 20 determine whether the mental disorder or developmental disability that 21 results in a substantial likelihood of committing similar acts is a 22 contributing factor to the person's continued inability to regain 23 competence; or

24 (4) Such person is gravely disabled.

25 Sec. 8. RCW 71.05.320 and 2009 c 323 s 2 are each amended to read
26 as follows:

27 (1) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 28 71.05.280 have been proven and that the best interests of the person or 29 others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an 30 alternative to detention, the court shall remand him or her to the 31 custody of the department or to a facility certified for ninety day 32 treatment by the department for a further period of intensive treatment 33 not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment. If the grounds 34 set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, then the 35 period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred eighty days 36 from the date of judgment in a facility certified for one hundred 37 eighty day treatment by the department.

1 (2) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW
2 71.05.280 have been proven, but finds that treatment less restrictive 3 than detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, 4 then the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department 5 or to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department 6 or to a less restrictive alternative for a further period of less 7 restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of 8 judgment. If the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis 9 of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed 10 one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment.

11 (3) The person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the 12 expiration of the period of commitment imposed under subsection (1) or 13 (2) of this section unless the superintendent or professional person in 14 charge of the facility in which he or she is confined, or in the event 15 of a less restrictive alternative, the designated mental health 16 professional, files a new petition for involuntary treatment on the 17 grounds that the committed person:

18 (a) During the current period of court ordered treatment: (i) Has 19 threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of 20 another, or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (ii) 21 as a result of mental disorder or developmental disability presents a 22 likelihood of serious harm; or

23 (b) Was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or 24 she attempted or inflicted serious physical harm upon the person of 25 another, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder or 26 developmental disability a likelihood of serious harm; or

27 (c) Is in custody pursuant to RCW 71.05.280(3) and as a result of 28 mental disorder or developmental disability continues to present~~((s))~~ 29 a substantial likelihood of repeating ~~((similar))~~ ~~((considering))~~ 30 similar to the charged criminal behavior, when considering the person's 31 life history, progress in treatment, continued incompetence, and the 32 public safety. In cases under this subsection where the court has made 33 an affirmative special finding under RCW 71.05.280(3)(b), the 34 commitment shall continue for an additional one hundred eighty day 35 period whenever the petition presents prima facie evidence that the 36 person continues to suffer from a mental disorder or developmental 37 disability that results in a substantial likelihood of committing acts 38 similar to the charged criminal behavior, unless the person presents

1 proof through an admissible expert opinion that the person's condition 2 has so changed such that his or her competence has been restored, or 3 that the mental disorder or developmental disability contributing to 4 the legal incompetence no longer has an impact on the person's 5 continuing risk to commit acts similar to the charged criminal 6 behavior; or

7 (d) Continues to be gravely disabled.

8 If the conduct required to be proven in (b) and (c) of this 9 subsection was found by a judge or jury in a prior trial under this 10 chapter, it shall not be necessary to prove such conduct again.

11 (4) For a person committed under subsection (2) of this section who 12 has been remanded to a period of less restrictive treatment, in 13 addition to the grounds specified in subsection (3) of this section, 14 the designated mental health professional may file a new petition for 15 continued less restrictive treatment if:

16 (a) The person was previously committed by a court to detention for 17 involuntary mental health treatment during the thirty-six months that 18 preceded the person's initial detention date during the current 19 involuntary commitment cycle, excluding any time spent in a mental 20 health facility or in confinement as a result of a criminal conviction;

21 (b) In view of the person's treatment history or current behavior, 22 the person is unlikely to voluntarily participate in outpatient 23 treatment without an order for less restrictive treatment; and

24 (c) Outpatient treatment that would be provided under a less 25 restrictive treatment order is necessary to prevent a relapse,
26 decompensation, or deterioration that is likely to result in the person 27 presenting a likelihood of serious harm or the person becoming gravely 28 disabled within a reasonably short period of time.

29 (5) A new petition for involuntary treatment filed under subsection 30 (3) or (4) of this section shall be filed and heard in the superior 31 court of the county of the facility which is filing the new petition 32 for involuntary treatment unless good cause is shown for a change of 33 venue. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the state.

34 (6) The hearing shall be held as provided in RCW 71.05.310, and if 35 the court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as 36 set forth in this section are present, the court may order the 37 committed person returned for an additional period of treatment not to 38 exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. At the end

1 of the one hundred eighty day period of commitment, the committed 2 person shall be released unless a petition for another one hundred 3 eighty day period of continued treatment is filed and heard in the same 4 manner as provided in this section. Successive one hundred eighty day 5 commitments are permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the 6 same procedures as the original one hundred eighty day commitment.
7 However, a commitment is not permissible under subsection (4) of this 8 section if thirty-six months have passed since the last date of 9 discharge from detention for inpatient treatment that preceded the 10 current less restrictive alternative order, nor shall a commitment 11 under subsection (4) of this section be permissible if the likelihood 12 of serious harm in subsection (4)(c) of this section is based solely on 13 harm to the property of others.

14 (7) No person committed as provided in this section may be detained 15 unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of 16 commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length.

17 Sec. 9. RCW 71.05.425 and 2011 c 305 s 5 are each amended to read
18 as follows:

19 (1)(a) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, at the 20 earliest possible date, and in no event later than thirty days before 21 conditional release, final release, authorized leave under RCW 22 71.05.325(2), or transfer to a facility other than a state mental 23 hospital, the superintendent shall send written notice of conditional 24 release, release, authorized leave, or transfer of a person committed 25 under RCW 71.05.280(3) or 71.05.320(3)(c) following dismissal of a sex, 26 violent, or felony harassment offense pursuant to RCW 10.77.086(4) to
