

HB 1165 - DIGEST

Prohibits the state and its political subdivisions from adopting and developing environmental and developmental policies that would infringe or restrict private property rights without due process.