EFFECT: Removes Part I on Disproportionality in Student Discipline from the bill, which:

- Prohibits districts from suspending the providing of educational services as a form of discretionary action;
- Prohibits long-term suspension or expulsion as a form of discretionary discipline, limits all suspension or expulsion to the length of an academic term, and requires a reengagement meeting that includes the student's family;
- Removes certain discretionary violations from those that may result in suspension or expulsion;
- Requires districts to review, adopt, and disseminate discipline policies and procedures, and encourages districts to train staff on the policies and procedures; and
- Requires the Education Research and Data Center to prepare a regular report on the educational and workforce outcomes of youth in the juvenile justice system.
