EFFECT: Makes the following changes to the striking amendment:

- (1) Adjusts the time within which a member of the redistricting committee is prohibited from having been a consultant for, contractor with, or lobbyist lobbying the county commission from one year to two years before appointment to the commission.
- (2) Changes the term "hired to lobby" to "registered lobbyist."
- (3) Limits the prohibition on a member of the redistricting committee from actively participating in or contributing to any political campaign to candidates for county elective office (removes federal and state office).
