PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

[Filed April 25, 2013, 7:19 a.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: WAC 4-30-070 What are the experience requirements in order to obtain a CPA license? and 4-30-080 How do I apply for an initial individual CPA license?

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: WAC 4-30-070: RCW 18.04.055(11), 18.04.105(1)(d); WAC 4-30-080: RCW 18.055 [18.04.055], 18.04.-105(1), 18.04.215(1).

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: To transfer "knowledge of the Public Accountancy Act and board rules" from the experience competencies (WAC 4-30-070) to WAC 4-30-080 that requires applicants for an initial individual CPA license to complete a course covering the Washington Public Accountancy Act, related board rules, and board policies. Under the rule proposal, applicants for a Washington state CPA license will be required to complete a self-study course, the related test, and score at least ninety percent. The goal is to expose applicants to and ensure their knowledge of the Public Accountancy Act, board rules, and board policies. This knowledge is essential to impart a public responsibility orientation to new licensees.

Process for Developing New Rule: Agency study.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting Richard C. Sweeney, Executive Director, Washington State Board of Accountancy, P.O. Box 9131, Olympia, WA 98507-9131, phone (360) 586-0163, fax (360) 664-9190, e-mail info@cpaboard.wa.gov.

PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION

[Filed April 25, 2013, 12:19 p.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: The language of WAC 139-10-210 is inconsistent with that in RCW 43.101.-220. RCW 43.101.220 mandates all corrections personnel to attend basic academy training; WAC 139-10-210 mandates only full-time corrections employees.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 43.101.080.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: Due to the inconsistency in wording there is confusion as to who is actually required to attend the basic corrections training. The proposed changes to WAC 139-10-210 will provide clarity, as it will mirror the language of RCW 43.101.220.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: The Washington state criminal justice training commission (WSCJTC) regulates this process.

Process for Developing New Rule: Negotiated rule making.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting Sonja Hirsch, Rules Coordinator, WSCJTC, 19010 1st Avenue South, Burien, WA 98148, e-mail shirsch@cjtc.state.wa.us, phone (206) 835-7372; or Pam Clark, Corrections Commander, e-mail pclark@cjtc.state.wa.us, phone (206) 835-7306. FISH AND WILDLIFE

Subject of Possible Rule Making: Wildlife interaction regulations.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 77.04.012, 77.04.055, 77.12.047, 77.12.240, and chapter 77.36 RCW.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: Several wildlife species are subject to United States Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) regulation in Washington as part of the Endangered Species Act, the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, and other federal laws. Regular coordination occurs between Washington department of fish and wildlife (WDFW) and the USFWS, and state regulations are designed to fit within the parameters of the USFWS's regulation guidelines. In addition, the USDA's Wildlife Services branch works with many entities across the state to mitigate wildlife conflicts and damage. PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY
DEPARTMENT OF
EARLY LEARNING

[Filed April 26, 2013, 1:30 p.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: Chapter 170-297 WAC, Licensed school age child care standards, revising rules related to safe food handling to be consistent with the new food handler guide, released by the department of health (DOH).

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: Chapter 43.215 RCW.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: A new food handler's guide has been released by DOH. The changes will ensure safe food handling rules in chapter 170-297 WAC do not contradict the requirements in the food handler's guide.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: As appropriate, the department of early learning (DEL) plans to coordinate rule making with or seek input on the draft rules with DOH.

Process for Developing New Rule: As resources permit, DEL plans to circulate draft materials for informal input. At a future date, DEL will file proposed rules, schedule a public hearing or hearings, and accept written comments before adopting final rules.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication. PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY EMPLOYMENT SECURITY DEPARTMENT

Subject of Possible Rule Making: Amend WAC 192-320-085 When is an overpayment of benefits credited to an employer's account? Adopt a new rule establishing a $25.00 penalty for employers who omit required information relating to owners, partners, members or corporate officers on the registration form filed with the department for purposes of obtaining an employment security account number.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 50.12.010 and 50.12.040.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: WAC 192-320-085 currently provides that an employer's account is to be credited, based on a benefit overpayment determination, in the quarter the eligibility decision is made. The proposed amendment would instead apply the credit in the quarter in which the benefits were originally charged to the employer. This is more equitable to employers because it reduces the chance they will pay a higher tax rate in a previous quarter when it is later determined they deserved a credit.

WAC 192-310-070 requires employers registering with the department to provide information related to all owners, partners, members and corporate officers. The proposed $25.00 penalty will provide an incentive for employers to provide complete information with the application.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: The United States Department of Labor (USDOL) reviews the state's administration of the UI program to ensure conformity to federal statutes and regulations. The state has broad flexibility in the implementation of UI laws as long as conformity is maintained. The proposed rules will be shared with USDOL prior to adoption.

Process for Developing New Rule: The proposed rules will be shared with stakeholders identified in the rule-making process. We will solicit input from stakeholders and consider all written comments in the development of the final rules.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication by contacting Juanita Myers, Unemployment Insurance Rules Manager, Employment Security Department, P.O. Box 9046, Olympia, WA 98507-9046, fax (360) 902-9799, e-mail jmyers@esd.wa.gov. Please include your name, organization (if any), mailing address, e-mail address and telephone number.

PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY HEALTH CARE AUTHORITY

(Medicaid Program)

[Filed April 29, 2013, 4:59 p.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: Amending WAC 182-500-0075 Medical assistance definitions—N, 182-500-0080 Medical assistance definitions—O, 182-500-0085 Medical assistance definitions—P, 182-502-0005 Core provider agreement (CPA) and 182-530-1000 Outpatient drug program—General; new section WAC 182-502-0006 Enrollment for nonbilling individual providers; and other rules as appropriate.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 41.05.021.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: These rules are necessary to establish the medicaid agency's authority to designate willing providers as nonbilling providers and to establish rules applicable to those providers who may apply for this new designation. Nonbilling providers are health care professionals who wish to enroll with the agency to only be an ordering, referring, prescribing provider for the Washington medicaid program and who is not otherwise enrolled as a medicaid provider with the agency. This is required for medicaid to be compliant with the Affordable Care Act, while retaining access to clients for providers who qualify for this designation. During the course of this review, the agency may identify additional changes that are required in order to improve clarity or update policy.

Process for Developing New Rule: Health care authority (HCA) welcomes the public to take part in developing this rule. If interested, contact the person identified below to receive an early rule draft to review. After the early review, HCA will send a notice of proposed rule making (CR-102) to everyone receiving this notice and anyone who requests a copy.
