- WAC 110-145-2005 What are the required ratios of staff to children in an ERC? (1) At all times, emergency respite centers must have the following minimum staffing ratios:
  - (a) At least two staff on duty when children are present; and
- (b) One direct care staff providing visual or auditory supervision for every four children in care.
- (2) The director, program manager, or case manager at an emergency respite center must normally be on the premises during daytime hours when children are in care.
- (3) If temporarily absent (for two hours or less) from the center, the director and program manager must leave a competent, designated staff person in charge. This person must meet the qualifications of a direct care staff person.
- (4) During evening, overnight, and weekend shifts, at least one of the staff on the premises must be a direct care worker when children are present. The other staff may be an assistant. The director, program manager, or case manager must be on-call and able to respond by telephone within fifteen minutes.
