

WAC 137-56-240 Disciplinary hearing—Decision. (1) The hearing officer may:

(a) Restore the partial confinement individual to their partial confinement status under the same or modified conditions as the original plan; or

(b) Restrict the individual to the partial confinement program for up to 30 days; or

(c) Require restitution be made by the partial confinement individual; or

(d) Require extra duty to be performed by the individual; or

(e) Revoke approval of an approved sponsor; or

(f) Deny good conduct time; or

(g) Terminate the reentry center plan and return the partial confinement individual from a reentry center to a prison/institution/jail, or an electronic home monitoring individual to a reentry center or a prison/institution/jail.

(2) Nothing in this section shall preclude subsequent reclassification of the partial confinement individual or placement into administrative segregation if demonstrable cause exists to support this action and is approved by the administrator.

(3) The hearing officer shall notify the individual orally within one working day and confirm the decision in writing within five working days. The written decision shall specify the evidence upon which the hearing officer relied and shall include a description of the circumstances surrounding the allegation(s) upon which the termination of the partial confinement is based, the reasons for the decision, a discussion of the individual's personal culpability in the actions which have led to the termination, and an evaluation of the individual's progress, attitudes, need for further programs including reentry center alternatives.
