WAC 208-630-260 Do I have any alternative to maintaining a surety bond? With the approval of the director, you may substitute one of the following alternatives for the surety bond required under this chapter. Any alternative to the surety bond must secure the same obligations the surety bond would. The amount of a bond alternative substituted under subsection (1) or (2) of this section must be equal to or greater than the amount of the required surety bond.

(1) Time deposit. You may purchase and maintain a certificate of deposit assigned in favor of the director. The certificate of deposit must be issued by a financial institution in the state and whose deposits or shares are insured by an agency of the government of the United States. The deposit must be in an amount equal to or greater than the required surety bond. You are entitled to receive all interest and dividends on the certificate of deposit.

(2) Demonstration of sufficient net worth. You must demonstrate net worth of at least three times the amount of the required bond. You must notify the director within ten business days of any date upon which your net worth decreases below the required amount. If you fail to maintain the required level of net worth and continue to operate under a small loan endorsement, you must immediately obtain a surety bond and maintain it for five years after the date of noncompliance. During this five-year period, the director will not accept a demonstration of net worth in lieu of a surety bond.

(3) Reports required. If you maintain net worth in lieu of a surety bond, you must submit to the director an annual audited financial statement and a supplementary year-to-date financial statement within forty-five days after the close of each quarter, both prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The financial statements must include at a minimum a statement of assets and liabilities and a profit and loss statement. The director may continue to require other documents, agreements or information necessary to properly evaluate and ensure that you comply with this section.

(4) Bad debts and judgments. If you maintain net worth in lieu of a surety bond you must not consider bad debts and certain judgments as assets. The director may approve exceptions in writing. You must charge off your books any debt upon which any payment is six months or more past due. You may not count as an asset any unpaid judgment more than two years old. Time consumed by an appeal from a judgment is not counted in the two-year limit.

(5) Noncompliance. If you do not comply with this section you must obtain and file with the director a surety bond in the required amount in WAC 208-630-240 and 208-630-250 by the date specified by the director.

(3) All criminal history record information received by the director is confidential information and is for exclusive use of the director and the division of consumer services. Except on court order or as provided by subsection (4) of this section, or otherwise provided by law, the information may not be released or otherwise disclosed to any other person or agency.

(4) The director may not provide a person being investigated under this section with a copy of the person's criminal history record obtained pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. WAC 208-630-501 How must I determine the due date on the loan?

(1) The earliest due date for repayment is on or after the borrower's next pay date unless the pay date is within seven days of the date of the small loan. If the pay date falls within the seven days, you must set the repayment date on or after the borrower's second pay date after the date of the small loan. With the small loan origination date being day zero, count seven days out to determine the first available due date. A borrower with pay dates on the 5th and 20th of each month has a small loan with a loan origination date of February 1st. February 1st is day zero. February 8th is day seven. The borrower's pay date of February 5th is "within" seven days from loan's origination date. So the first due date will have to be on or after the borrower's next occurring pay date, February 20th.

(2) A loan's due date must be forty-five days or fewer from the origination date on the loan unless the term of the loan is extended by written agreement between you and the borrower at no additional cost to the borrower.

(3) If a small loan's due date falls on a date your business is not open, you must automatically extend the due date to your next business day.

(4) For purposes of this section, "pay date" means the borrower's scheduled pay date or the date the borrower's account is credited with any direct deposit or other electronic transfer of funds into their bank account, whichever is later.

(5) The borrower can pay off the loan at any time before the due date at no additional charge or fee.

WAC 208-630-510 When does a borrower have a right to enter into an installment plan? (1) The borrower has the right to convert a small loan into an installment plan upon request made on or before the small loan's due date. If the request is made on the small loan's due date, it must be made before the close of business, or at another time on the due date as agreed to in the written small loan agreement, but in no event can the agreed upon time be earlier than three o'clock p.m. on the due date.

(2) If you extend a small loan's due date, the borrower's right to request an installment plan on that loan follows the extended date.

(2) If the small loan is four hundred dollars or less the term must be for a period of at least ninety days;

(3) If the small loan is over four hundred dollars the term must be for a period of at least one hundred eighty days;

(4) (a) Installment payments must be both substantially equal in payment amount and substantially equally distributed over the installment plan payment period.

(b) An installment plan for ninety to one hundred eighty days is in compliance if there is at least one payment in each month in the period and payments are substantially equally distributed throughout the installment plan period.

(c) The borrower and licensee may mutually agree to fewer payments as long as they are substantially equal in amount and substantially equally distributed over the installment plan payment period.

(5) The borrower may pay off the total amount due at any time without additional penalty, fee, or charge for prepayment; and

(6) You may enter into a written installment plan with a borrower on terms other than these as long as the terms are not less favorable to the borrower and there is no charge to the borrower.

(1) For purposes of this section, "military borrower" means any active duty member of the armed forces of the United States, or any member of the National Guard or the reserves of the armed forces of the United States who has been called to active duty.

(2) A licensee must:

(a) Comply with the restrictions on loans to military borrowers and their dependents as required by Section 670 of the John Warner National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2007 and 32 C.F.R. Part 232, as amended.

(b) Honor the terms of any repayment agreement, including any repayment agreement negotiated through military counselors or third party credit counselors.

WAC 208-630-542 What fees may I charge or collect when a borrower defaults on a small loan? If the small loan is not in an installment plan, you may charge or collect a fee equal to or less than twenty-five dollars for a check returned unpaid by the bank drawn upon. Only one fee may be collected with respect to a particular check even if it has been redeposited and returned more than once. See WAC 208-630-549 for allowable default fees charged on small loans in an installment plan. On any one loan you can only charge the borrower twenty-five dollars. The fee will either be in the form of a returned check fee or an installment plan default fee, or some combination thereof; but in no event can you charge the borrower more than twenty-five dollars over the life of one loan.

- (1) The date, time, and brief description of all telephone communications initiated by the licensee for collection purposes; and
- (2) The date, time, and brief description of all written communications initiated by the licensee for collection purposes.

Returning a communication from a borrower is not initiating a communication with the borrower; however, the response must not violate any of the provisions of RCW 31.45.082.

The communication log may be in hard copy or electronic form, and must indicate the borrower's name.

The log must be maintained in a manner that will allow the examiner to review all collection communications covered under RCW 31.45.082 made during a period of time.

- (a) Use your license name together with the trade name; or
- (b) Use your license number together with the trade name.

(2) The director may deny an application for a proposed DBA name if the proposed DBA name is similar to a currently existing licensee name.

WAC 208-630-547 May I continue to hold the borrower's original check or ACH authorization once the borrower has converted the loan to an installment plan?

(1) No. At the initiation of an installment plan, you must either return or, at the borrower's request, destroy any postdated check securing the original small loan.

(2) The initiation of an installment plan voids your authorization to use the borrower's original ACH authorization. You may accept another ACH authorization or authorizations consistent with the payment terms of the installment plan.

WAC 208-630-548 May I hold postdated checks for the installment plan payments?

Yes. You may take postdated checks at the time the installment plan is originated. The checks may not be written for a value more than the amount of the borrower's installment plan payments. If any of the checks are later dishonored, you may not charge the borrower any fee for the dishonored check or checks. Exception, see WAC 208-630-549.

WAC 208-630-549 May I charge the borrower additional fees if the borrower defaults on an installment plan?

Yes. You may charge the borrower a one time default fee of twenty-five dollars. A borrower defaults on an installment plan when the borrower fails to pay any installment plan payment within ten days after the date upon which the installment was scheduled to be paid. On any one loan you can only charge the borrower twenty-five dollars. The fee will either be in the form of a returned check fee or an installment plan default fee, or some combination thereof; but in no event can you charge the borrower more than twenty-five dollars over the life of one loan.

WAC 208-630-551 May I charge a fee to cash monetary instruments I issue as proceeds of a small loan?

WAC 208-630-555 What is the purpose of the database? The purpose of this database system is to:

(1) Prevent the practice of refinancing a small loan with another small loan;

(2) Prevent multiple licensees from making simultaneous small loans to an individual borrower so that the loans' total principal balance exceeds the lesser of seven hundred dollars or thirty percent of the borrower's gross monthly income;

(3) Prevent licensees from making more than eight loans to any one borrower in any twelve-month period;

(4) Prevent a licensee from making a loan to a borrower who already has an outstanding small loan principal balance of the lesser of seven hundred dollars or thirty percent of their gross monthly income;

(5) Prevent licensees from making a loan to a borrower who is in default on a small loan or is in an installment plan; and

(6) Ensure that licensees set the small loan due date no earlier than the borrower's next pay date that is more than seven days from the origination date.

WAC 208-630-556 How do I use the database system for small loan transactions? (1) Beginning January 1, 2010, each small loan transaction must be registered with the database system and receive a database system-generated transaction authorization number. The transaction authorization number demonstrates that the transaction has been recorded in the database prior to you making the small loan to the borrower.

(2) Do I have to buy any equipment, hardware, or software to use the database system? You must have a computer with access to the internet and Microsoft Internet Explorer 6 or higher. Dial-up capacity of at least 56 kps is sufficient. DSL or broadband access will provide faster access and response. It is also possible to interface directly with the database system; the database vendor can provide you with information about that process.

(3) How and when may I access the database system?

(a) The database system is the means by which real-time access to the data is made available to you through your internet connection.

(b) You must use a computer and the internet to access the database system.

(c) The database system will be accessible twenty-four hours a day every day of the year, except for routine scheduled system maintenance and upgrades performed by the database vendor.

(4) What must I do to maintain confidentiality of the borrower's information provided to the database? In order to maintain the confidentiality and security of the borrower's information, you must not transmit information to the database system using publicly accessible computers, computers that are not under your control, unsecured wireless connections, or other connections that are not secure. Maintaining a secure connection includes, but is not limited to, installing and regularly updating antivirus and antispyware software and a firewall.

(5) How do I use the database system to determine a borrower's eligibility for a small loan? You must:

(a) Access the database system using the assigned user identification and password provided by the security administrator of your company;

(b) Enter the borrower's Social Security number, individual tax identification number (ITIN), or alien identification number, and the borrower's gross monthly income into the system.

(6) What information will the database system give me when an eligibility search is conducted? The database system will state a borrower's eligibility or ineligibility for a small loan and will give a reason for the eligibility determination. If the borrower is eligible for a small loan, the database system will provide the dollar amount the borrower is eligible to receive.

(7) What must I do once the initial search determines that the borrower is eligible for a small loan?

(a) If you receive an initial indication from the database vendor that the borrower is eligible for a small loan, you must then submit all of the required borrower information necessary to register the transaction in the database, as prescribed by the database vendor.

(b) When the required information has been submitted to the database, the database system will confirm the initial borrower search. If the borrower's eligibility is confirmed, the small loan transaction will be recorded as open and assigned a transaction authorization number evidencing that the transaction has been authorized by the database system. You must place the transaction authorization number on the small loan agreement.

(8) What must I do if the borrower is determined to be ineligible for a small loan? If the borrower is deemed ineligible you will be provided with a printable message with a reason for the determination. The message will also include the name, address, and toll-free support number of the database vendor. You must provide a copy of the printable message to the borrower.

(9) If I make a mistake entering data and must void the transaction, what do I do? Follow the database vendor's instructions to administratively void the transaction.

(10) If the database system is inaccessible via the internet, how do I access the database?

(a) You will be given at least twenty-four hours notice for scheduled maintenance or system upgrades. The notice will be by electronic mail to the designated security administrator, or by a broadcast message on the database vendor's website.

(b) In the event the database system is unavailable, you must adhere to the following procedures:

(i) Confirm that the database system remains unavailable by attempting to access the database system with every borrower seeking a new small loan transaction. You need not comply with this procedure if you have been notified via electronic mail by the database vendor of an expected period of time necessary to correct whatever problem is causing the database system to remain unavailable;

(ii) Contact the database vendor's toll-free help desk or voice response system to obtain a temporary transaction authorization number directly from the database vendor; and

(iii) Enter the remaining transactional data into the database system within twenty-four hours of obtaining the temporary transaction authorization number from the database vendor.

(c) In the event that either the department of financial institutions or the database vendor notifies you that the database system is unavailable and that all alternative methods for registering a transaction and receiving a transaction authorization number are also unavailable:

(i) You are authorized to conduct transactions during the specific period of unavailability, after receiving written authorization, via electronic mail or facsimile from either the department of financial institutions or the database vendor with the department of financial institutions' consent.

(ii) Copies of the written authorization for any transactions conducted during an unavailability period must be attached to the small loan agreement for those transactions. One copy of the authorization must be provided to the borrower and another copy must be kept as an audit record.

(d) Transactions created during a period of authorized unavailability must be registered with the database within twenty-four hours of notification that the database system is available; provided, however, that if the database system is unavailable for more than twenty-four hours, then the period for registration shall be extended by twenty-four hours for each additional twenty-four-hour period of unavailability.

(e) Once the transaction has been registered with the database, the transaction number assigned to that transaction must be placed on the licensee's record copy of the small loan agreement signed by the borrower for that transaction. If the borrower requests that transaction number at any time, the licensee must provide it to the borrower.

(11) Once a loan is made, how can it be canceled or rescinded as authorized under RCW 31.45.086? A borrower may rescind a small loan agreement before the close of business on the next day of business after the date of the transaction without incurring a transaction fee. If a borrower elects to cancel a small loan agreement you must close the transaction on the database as soon as practicable after the borrower rescinds the small loan transaction. A loan that has been rescinded does not count toward the eight loan limit; nor will you incur a one dollar transaction fee on that loan. For the purpose of rescinding a loan, the date of the transaction is the date the borrower actually receives the proceeds either in person or by direct deposit or other electronic transfer of funds into the borrower's bank account.

(12) When must I update information on the database system?

(a) When a borrower's small loan is paid (date of cash received, check deposited, or ACH authorization initiated), you must update open transactions on the database system as soon as practicable to ensure that all identifying information regarding both the borrower and the transaction are accurate, including any comments on the transaction which you deem relevant. You must input the date and time a transaction closes, as well as the payment method, unless you previously entered the payment method.

(b) When a small loan that was in default is paid, it is considered paid when the loaned amount and default fee is paid.

(c) When a loan is in default, you must mark the loan in the database as in default as soon as practicable after the default as follows:

(i) A small loan is in default if not paid on the date and by the time indicated in the small loan agreement. If no time is indicated the small loan is in default the first day after the due date.

(ii) A small loan in an installment plan is in default if unpaid on the 11th day after the due date, with the due date being day zero. If the due date for an installment plan payment is January 1st and is not paid, the loan is considered in default and the database must be updated on January 11th.

(d) When you receive formal notice that a small loan has been discharged in bankruptcy you must close the loan as having been paid, leaving a comment in the comment box about the bankruptcy. Do not administratively close the loan. The loan must continue to count toward the borrower's eight loan limit.

(13) How much will each database transaction cost me? The database vendor's transaction fee is one dollar per loan registered. The database vendor will assess this fee for each transaction that has been registered on the database.

(14) What happens if I do not pay the database fees to the database vendor? The database vendor will lock you out of the database system.

(15) What happens if I do not receive training and become certified in using the database? If you or another designated person in the company do not receive training and certification to use the database, you will not be given an access number for the database.

If the ACH authorization cannot be destroyed it becomes void if you cancel the loan.
