May a designated escrow officer or a branch designated escrow officer work for two or more licensed escrow agents?

Yes, under certain circumstances. If the director agrees with the escrow agent's need for this arrangement and with the director's prior written consent a designated escrow officer or branch designated escrow officer may provide escrow services and may supervise employees for more than one licensed escrow agent.