  Small specialty toy stores with inventory limited to smaller items, such as playing cards, puzzles, games, blocks, small dolls, and other hand toys, which is classified 6411.

6406-40 Retail product demonstrator services
  This special exception classification applies only to manufacturers, wholesalers, and businesses specializing in providing product demonstrators and their services to others. Workers reported in this classification can have no duties during their work shift other than those permitted for product demonstrators.
  The classification includes:
  • Set up and break down of a demonstration display space;
  • Providing samples without charge;
  • Use of kitchen appliances and utensils to prepare food samples;
  • Use of nonpowered hand tools and battery-powered screwdrivers to assemble and disassemble displays.
  This classification excludes:
  • Stocking shelves;
• Selling;
• Setting up product displays intended to remain after the product demonstration;
• Delivery;
• Demonstrating machinery or equipment.

Product demonstrators employed by a retail store are to be reported under the store's basic classification; product demonstrators employed by a temporary help service are to be reported in classification 7106.
