

WAC 308-90-090 Change of business location. What must I do to change business locations?

The dealer must notify the department of any change of the firm's business location or mailing address prior to engaging in business at the new location. Notification shall be made by filing a change of address application on a form provided by the department. The vessel dealer will be required to provide a list of all business locations of the firm when changing the business address of the firm's office.
