WAC 357-16-150  Must employers develop a promotional policy?
Each employer must have a written promotional policy which:
   (1) Defines who is considered a promotional candidate, including whether probationary employees and permanent employees who have left the employer to accept project or nonpermanent appointments with other employers are considered as promotional candidates;
   (2) Identifies the employer's promotional organizational units, if any;
   (3) Identifies how promotional preference will be applied in recruitment and certification, if at all; and
   (4) Specifies the duration of any promotional candidate lists or pools.
