WAC 365-196-560  Special siting statutes.  (1) Comprehensive plans and development regulations adopted under the act should accommodate situations where the state has explicitly preempted all local land use regulations, as for example, in the siting of major energy facilities under RCW 80.50.110.

(2) Where special statutes relate specifically to the setting aside of designated areas for particular purposes and under particular management programs, local land use regulations adopted under the act should be consistent with those purposes and programs. Examples in this category are the statutes relating to:
   (a) Natural resource conservation areas;
   (b) Natural area preserves;
   (c) Seashore conservation area;
   (d) Scenic rivers.
