WAC 388-14A-1050 The division of child support cooperates with tribes and other states and countries for support enforcement purposes. The division of child support (DCS) cooperates with the IV-D agencies of tribes and other states and the central authorities of other countries, according to rules and policies set by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services and the federal Office of Child Support Services (OCSS). Areas of cooperation include:

(1) Establishing parentage;

(2) Locating a noncustodial parent (NCP) who resides in Washington;

(3) Enforcing the support obligation of an NCP who resides in Washington but whose support order was entered by an Indian tribe or another state or country; and

(4) Any other functions required under a Title IV-D plan.
