WAC 388-76-10355 Negotiated care plan. The adult family home must use the resident assessment and preliminary care plan to develop a written negotiated care plan. The home must ensure each resident's negotiated care plan includes:

1. A list of the care and services to be provided;
2. Identification of who will provide the care and services;
3. When and how the care and services will be provided;
4. How medications will be managed, including how the resident will get their medications when the resident is not in the home;
5. The resident's activities preferences and how the preferences will be met;
6. Other preferences and choices about issues important to the resident, including, but not limited to:
   a. Food;
   b. Daily routine;
   c. Grooming; and
   d. How the home will accommodate the preferences and choices.
7. If needed, a plan to:
   a. Follow in case of a foreseeable crisis due to a resident's assessed needs;
   b. Reduce tension, agitation and problem behaviors;
   c. Respond to resident's special needs, including, but not limited to medical devices and related safety plans;
   d. Respond to a resident's refusal of care or treatment, including when the resident's physician or practitioner should be notified of the refusal;
8. Identification of any communication barriers the resident may have and how the home will use behaviors and nonverbal gestures to communicate with the resident;
9. A statement of the ability for resident to be left unattended for a specific length of time; and
10. A hospice care plan if the resident is receiving services for hospice care delivered by a licensed hospice agency.
