How do I show that I have cerebral palsy as an eligible condition? In order to be considered for eligibility under the condition of cerebral palsy you must be age four or older and have a diagnosis by a licensed physician of cerebral palsy or similar brain damage which causes, quadriplegia, hemiplegia, or diplegia, with evidence of onset prior to age three.