What out-of-home residential services does DDA provide? DDA provides the following out-of-home residential services that address the special needs of adults and children with developmental disabilities:

1. Contracted and DDA-certified community based residential services for adults;
2. Contracted community based services for children; and
3. Residential habilitation centers (RHC) for a person who requires ICF/ID or nursing facility care.
   a. On a short-term basis for those ages sixteen through twenty;
   or
   b. On a short or long-term basis if age twenty-one or older.