Who are individuals with community protection issues? You are considered an individual with community protection issues if:

1. You have been determined to have a developmental disability as defined in WAC 388-823-0040 and RCW 71A.10.020(3); and
2. You have been identified by DDD as a person who meets one or more of the following:
   a. You have been charged with or convicted of a crime of sexual violence as defined in chapter 9A.44 or 71.09 RCW;
   b. You have been charged with or convicted of a crime involving sexual acts directed towards strangers or individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization, or persons of casual acquaintance with whom no substantial personal relationship exists;
   c. You have been charged with or convicted of one or more violent crimes as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(45);
   d. You have not been charged with or convicted of a crime identified in (2)(a), (b), or (c) above, but you have a history of violent, stalking, sexually violent, predatory and/or opportunistic behavior which a qualified professional has determined demonstrates a likelihood to commit a violent, sexually violent and/or predatory act; and
3. You constitute a current risk to others as determined by a qualified professional.
4. Charges or crimes that result in acquittal are excluded.
