Can I be terminated from the community protection program? You may be terminated from the community protection program by the division if:

1. You physically assault program participants, staff or others;
2. You repeatedly elope from the program or evade supervision;
3. You engage in illegal behavior of any kind; or
4. You refuse to comply with program and/or treatment guidelines to the extent that your therapist determines you are not amenable to treatment; and
5. The division determines that your health and safety needs cannot be met in the program.