Who are the qualified providers of personal care services? (1) Qualified providers of personal care services may be individuals or licensed homecare agencies contracted with DSHS.

(2) All individual providers and homecare agency providers must meet provider qualifications for in-home caregivers in WAC 388-71-0500 through 388-71-0556.

(3) Providers of personal care services for adults must comply with the training requirements in these rules governing medicaid personal care providers in WAC 388-71-0841 through 388-71-1006. Additionally, providers must meet the certification requirements in WAC 388-71-0975 through 388-71-0980 and WAC 246-980-010 through 246-980-990.

(4) Natural, step, or adoptive parents can be the personal care provider of their adult child age eighteen or older.