WAC 388-880-080  Reasons why escorted leave is allowed. An escorted leave of absence may be granted by the superintendent, or designee, subject to the approval of the secretary, to residents to:

(1) Go to the bedside of a member of the resident's immediate family as defined in WAC 388-855-0015, who is seriously ill;

(2) Attend the funeral of a member of the resident's immediate family as defined in WAC 388-855-0015; and

(3) Receive necessary medical or dental care which is not available in the institution.