

WAC 478-121-335 Brief adjudicative proceedings—Procedures for administrative review. (1) When the reviewing officer(s) conducts an administrative review, the review is based on:

(a) The conduct officer's record and fact finding;

(b) Information submitted to the review panel in the request for review or response to request for review; and

(c) Newly discovered evidence, if the basis for seeking administrative review is that newly discovered evidence has become available; however the review of newly discovered evidence is limited to determining whether the newly discovered evidence warrants remanding the matter for further proceedings.

(2) Decisions by a panel of reviewing officers will be determined by majority vote.
