BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that access to capital is vitally important for the health, security, and well-being of all individuals and businesses in our state. They are the economic drivers that help Washington's commerce run smoothly. The lack of accessible capital, as currently experienced due to the economic downturn, is exacerbating the economic hardships being faced by working families and businesses.

The legislature further finds that it can best direct economic development policy initiatives in a responsive and efficient manner with a state bank at its disposal.

The mission of the state bank of Washington is to promote agriculture, education, community development, economic development, commerce, and industry in Washington state. In this role, the bank acts as a funding resource in partnership with other financial institutions, economic development groups, and guaranty agencies.
Accuracy of financial reporting and compliance with all applicable laws and regulations is an integral part of the state bank of Washington's overall risk management strategy.

It is the intent of the legislature that all state funds and funds of state institutions are deposited at the state bank of Washington and are guaranteed by the state. Other deposits may be accepted from any private or public source.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The bank may make loans subject to the limitations in this chapter and any rules adopted by the treasurer. The bank has the ability to charge the same terms for a loan or extension of credit as a state-chartered bank under RCW 30.04.025 and

(3) Each person serving on the board or any subcommittee of the board and each officer and employee of the bank must be indemnified by the bank against all costs and expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him, her, or it in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he, she, or it is made a party by reason of his, her, or its being or having been a member of the board, or a member or officer or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he, she, or it has been judged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable by reason of willful misconduct in the performance of his, her, or its duties as a member of the board, or member, officer, or employee.
