

HB 1272 - DIGEST

Requires the superintendent of public instruction to:
(1) Designate six public schools as demonstration sites to implement and evaluate procedures to ensure that students have a lunch period that allows an adequate amount of time to obtain, sit down, and consume a meal;

(2) Provide technical assistance to schools selected as demonstration sites; and

(3) Award grants to school districts.

Requires the Washington state school directors' association to adopt a model policy and procedure that school districts may use to ensure that students have an adequate amount of time to obtain, sit down, and consume their meal.
