

HB 1451 - DIGEST

Requires a project permit application, under chapter 36.70B RCW, to be deemed complete upon submittal, except that within ten days after receiving an application that is submitted online or in person without an appointment, a local government must provide a written determination to the applicant, stating that the application is complete or incomplete.