

HB 1480 - DIGEST

States that a permit is not required in order to dispose of dredged materials at a disposal site approved through the cooperative planning process, if the dredged material disposal proponent has obtained a valid site use authorization from the dredged material management program office within the department of natural resources.