

HB 1490 - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/07/19)

Addresses the state industrial insurance act and the presumption established for cancer that applies to a United States department of energy Hanford site worker that was not given a qualifying medical examination because the examination was not required.