

HB 1605 - DIGEST

Requires a child entering the foster care system to have a screening for identification of a traumatic brain injury.

Includes the following in the comprehensive plan for evaluating and identifying children and youth in need of assistance of long-term care, of the secretary of the department of children, youth, and families: Individuals with mental illness, developmental disabilities, medical fragility, serious emotional or behavioral disabilities, and physical impairments.