

HB 1702 - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/04/19)

Requires a community or technical college to provide information to students during registration by displaying the following in the online course description: Whether a course uses low-cost required instructional materials.

Defines "low-cost" as the required instructional materials costing fifty dollars or less.