

HB 1713 - DIGEST

Creates two missing and murdered Native American women liaison positions, within the Washington state patrol, to work to build relationships to increase trust between governmental organizations and native communities.

Creates the legislative task force on missing and murdered Native American women to monitor and improve law enforcement response to missing persons reports for native American women.

Provides a December 1, 2021, expiration date for the task force.