

HB 1891 - DIGEST

Provides that if career and technical education funding allocations exceed general education funding allocations, the difference must be used only for career and staff education purposes including staff salaries and benefits associated with direct career and technical education instruction and activities to meet office of the superintendent of public instruction standards.