

SB 5637 - DIGEST

Increases the number of mental health and behavioral health professionals in the workforce.

Reduces the amount of business and occupation taxes paid by certain entities for providing behavioral health services and for training new mental health and chemical dependency professionals, in order to increase the amount of government funding available for patient services and supervised training for new mental health and behavioral health professionals.