

SENATE RESOLUTION

8620

By Senators Wilson, C., Cleveland, Das, Hasegawa, Hunt, Kuderer, Lias, Lovelett, Nobles, Pedersen, Randall, Warnick, and Wellman

1 WHEREAS, April 7th is World Health Day; and

2 WHEREAS, Access to the outdoors can promote health for all 3 people; and

4 WHEREAS, Over 23 percent of people in Washington state identify 5 as having a disability; and

6 WHEREAS, To truly achieve our equity goals, our state must 7 promote the health and overall well-being of people with 8 disabilities, respect their dignity and needs, and include them in 9 meaningful opportunities for recreation and growth; and

10 WHEREAS, Washington state's beautiful outdoor spaces include a 11 world-class network of hiking trails, awe-inspiring landmarks like 12 Mt. Rainier, the Olympic National Rainforest, the Ginko Petrified 13 Forest, and more, which provide unique and endless opportunities for 14 exploration, education, and play; and

15 WHEREAS, The Washington State Leadership Board, a statutory 16 nonprofit organization, is directed by the State Legislature to 17 promote opportunities for youth, including youth with disabilities, 18 and does so through its two-year Boundless Washington program; and

19 WHEREAS, Boundless Washington is a statewide program that seeks 20 to turn Washington state's equity goals into a reality by creating 21 opportunities for young people with disabilities to explore the 22 outdoors and build their leadership skills; and

1 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington program has attracted 2 support from prominent local sports teams, including the Seattle
3 Storm and the Seattle Mariners, due to its emphasis on equity 4 for young people with disabilities; and

5 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington program operates in 6 partnership with our state's premier outdoor disability service
7 provider, Outdoors for All; and the nationally-acclaimed No
8 Barriers organization; and

9 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington program was inspired by 10 Erik Weihenmayer, the first blind person to summit Mt. Everest, 11 and aims to instill the same sense of audacity and potential in 12 each of the Boundless Washington fellows; and

13 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington program was created
14 through a partnership between the Washington State Leadership 15 Board and the Lieutenant Governor's office; and

16 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington program recently accepted 17 its second cohort of young leaders with disabilities; and

18 WHEREAS, The inaugural Boundless Washington cohort has 19 demonstrated great resilience and creativity for the past year,
20 remaining active and engaged while practicing social distancing; 21 and

22 WHEREAS, The Boundless Washington fellows exhibit the care
23 for community, independent-mindedness, and self-confidence that 24 characterize good leadership and inspire those around them;

25 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate reaffirm the 26 importance of the Boundless Washington program in promoting 27 strong, equitable leadership in Washington state, and commend
28 the Boundless Washington fellows: Noah Sutherland, Ayden Harris,
29 Charles Johnson, Grace Perleberg, Ritika Khanal, Jaida Barrows,
30 Derrek Butterfield, Josiah Morrow, Kelhana Miller, Finn Paynich, 31 Annie Guo, and Wesley McNutt; and

32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 33 immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the 34 Washington State Leadership Board staff to share with the 35 Boundless Washington fellows and their families.

36 I, Sarah Bannister, Secretary of the Senate, 37 do hereby certify that this is a true and

1 correct copy of Senate Resolution 8620,
2 adopted by the Senate
