Prevailing Rate of Wage

As per RCW 39.12.015, 39.12.020, and WAC 296-127-011 and as was published on the internet on August 1, 2008, and were effective August 31, 2008, the industrial statistician has determined the statewide prevailing rates of wage. These prevailing rates of wage are effective for public works projects bid on or after August 31, 2008. On September 16, 2008, the industrial statistician made corrections to these rates. The corrected rates will be effective on October 16, 2008, thirty days from the date of correction.

On September 16, 2008, the industrial statistician also corrected rates that were published on February 1, 2008, and effective March 2, 2008. These corrected rates will also be effective on October 16, 2008.

Every contractor and subcontractor on every public works project must file a statement of intent to pay prevailing wages and an affidavit of wages paid. Both forms must be filed on every project. The filing of the affidavit of wages paid does not set aside the requirement to also file the statement of intent to pay prevailing wages. The department may fine contractors $500 for failure to file these forms.

For more information on prevailing wage or a copy of the rates please visit our web site at www.lni.wa.gov/Trades Licensing/PrevailingWage/ or call (360) 902-5335.

RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE (RAP)

NEW RULE 18.13A. ACCELERATED REVIEW OF JUVENILE DEPENDENCY DISPOSITION ORDERS AND ORDERS TERMINATING PARENTAL RIGHTS

(a) Generally. Juvenile dependency disposition orders and orders terminating parental rights may be reviewed by a commissioner on the merits by accelerated review as provided in this rule. Review from other orders entered in juvenile dependency and termination actions are not subject to this rule. The provisions of this rule supersede all other provisions of the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the contrary, and this rule shall be construed so that appeals from juvenile dependency disposition orders and orders terminating parental rights shall be heard as expeditiously as possible.

(b) Notice of Appeal - Filing with Appellate Court.

The notice of appeal must be filed with the trial court in compliance with Title 5 of these rules. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this rule, a timely notice of appeal shall be accepted for filing. A copy of the notice of appeal with proof of service should be filed with the appellate court by the appellant at the time it is filed with the trial court.

(c) Motion for Order of Indigency.

Parties seeking review at public expense must file a motion for order of indigency in the trial court. Any order of indigency should be filed contemporaneously with the notice of appeal.

(d) Consolidation.

When one or more appellants seek review of more than one dependency dispositional order or order terminating parental rights arising from cases tried together, each appellant may file a single statement of arrangements and a single designation of clerk's papers under the lowest trial court cause number. The appellate court normally will consolidate the appeals for purposes of review.

(e) Statement of Arrangements.

A statement of arrangements should be filed contemporaneously with the notice of appeal. The party seeking review should arrange for the transcription of an original and one copy of the verbatim report of proceedings. If the proceeding being reviewed was recorded electronically, transcription of the recordings shall be completed by a court-approved transcriber in accordance with the procedures developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts. An indigent party should provide the court reporter, transcriber, or court administrator a copy of the order of indigency. A non-indigent party should arrange for payment for the transcription of the report.

The party seeking review must file with the trial and appellate courts and serve the statement of arrangements on all parties of record and all named court reporters and file proof of service with the appellate court. The party must indicate the date that the report of proceedings was ordered, the financial arrangements which have been made for payment of transcription costs, the name of each court reporter or other person authorized to prepare the report of proceedings who will be preparing a transcript, the hearing dates, and the trial court judge. If the party seeking review does not intend to provide a report of proceedings, a statement to that effect should be filed in lieu of a statement of arrangements and served on all parties of record.

See Form 15B

(f) Report of Proceedings.

The preparation and filing of reports of proceedings in appeals under this rule take precedence over all other appeal records. The format of the verbatim report of proceedings is governed by rule 9.2 (e) and (f). The filing and service of the report of proceedings is governed by rule 9.5, except that any motion for extension of time to file the report of proceedings must be accompanied by an affidavit from the court reporter or other person authorized to prepare the report of proceedings demonstrating exceptional circumstances. Extensions otherwise will be denied and sanctions may be imposed.

(g) Designation and Filing of Clerk's Papers. The party seeking review should file a designation of clerk's papers with the trial and appellate courts contemporaneously with the notice of appeal. In appeals under this rule, the entire trial court file shall be designated as clerk's papers to be transmitted to the appellate court. All of the exhibits filed in the trial court shall also be designated and transmitted to the appellate court. In cases appropriate for consolidation under subsection (d) of this rule, a designation of clerk's papers need only request the preparation of a single trial court file. The clerk shall prepare and transmit the clerk's papers as set forth in rules 9.7 and 9.8, except that a copy of the clerk's papers and the exhibits shall be provided to appellate counsel. The clerk should give priority to the preparation and filing of clerk's papers in appeals under this rule.

See Form 15C

(h) Briefing. Parties shall file briefs in compliance with rules 10.3 and 10.4.

(i) Time for Filing Briefs.

(1) Brief of Appellant. The brief of an appellant should be filed with the appellate court within 30 days after the report of proceedings is filed with the trial court; or, if the record on review does not include a report of proceedings, within 30 days after the party seeking review has received an index of clerk's papers and exhibits. Appellant shall append to the brief a copy of the trial court's findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(2) Brief of Respondent. The brief of a respondent should be filed with the appellate court within 30 days after service of the brief of appellant. When there is more than one appellant, the respondent may file one brief in response to all appellants.

(3) Reply Brief. A reply brief of an appellant should be filed with the appellate court within 15 days after service of the brief of respondent unless the court orders otherwise.

(4) Other Briefs. The appellate court may, on its own motion or on motion of a party, authorize or direct the filing of briefs on the merits other than those listed in this rule.

(5) Briefs in Consolidated Cases. In consolidated cases, a party may (i) join with one or more other parties in a single brief, or (ii) file a separate brief and adopt by reference any part of the brief of another.

(j) Supreme Court Review. A decision by the Court of Appeals on accelerated review that relates only to juvenile dependency dispositional orders or orders terminating parental rights is subject to review by the Supreme Court only by a motion for discretionary review on the terms and in the manner provided in rules 13.3(e) and 13.5A.

RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE (RAP)

RULE 13.5A. MOTIONS FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW OF SPECIFIED FINAL DECISIONS

(2) Decisions dismissing or deciding post-sentence petitions, as provided in rule 16.18(g);

(c) Motion Procedure Controls. Unless otherwise specified in this rule, ~~the~~ motion procedure, including a party's response, is governed by rule 17.

(e) Supreme Court Review. A decision by the Court of Appeals on accelerated review that relates only to a juvenile offense disposition, ~~juvenile dependency and termination of parental rights~~ is subject to review by the Supreme Court only by a motion for discretionary review on the terms and in the manner provided in rules 13.3(e) and 13.5A.

(f) Schedule. The accelerated review shall include a schedule for filing the record on review, the motion, response, and reply, and briefs and setting oral argument.

(g) Content of Motion and Response. In addition to the requirements of section (b) of this rule, a party appealing from the disposition decision following a finding of dependency by a juvenile court or a decision terminating all of a person's parental rights with respect to a child should (1) append to the motion a copy of the trial court's finding of facts and conclusions of law and copies of all dependency review orders; (2) identify by specific assignments of error those findings and conclusions challenged on appeal; and (3) set forth the applicable standard of governing review of those issues. ~~Counsel for the respondent should respond to each~~

GR 9 COVER SHEET
Suggested Amendment
GENERAL RULES (GR)
Rule Amendment 29(k) Judicial Services Contracts

Purpose: This rule is intended to address conflicts between contracts for judicial services, the requirements of General Rule 29, and judicial independence. Personal services contracts are frequently offered to part-time municipal court judges as a basis for their employment. These contracts often include provisions that define and limit the power and authority of the judge in ways that conflict with General Rule 29, Chapter 3.50 and Chapter 44.49.160 RCW. They often characterize the employment of the judicial officer as an independent contractor and divest the presiding judge of court management authority.

The Ethics Advisory Committee's Ethics Opinion 99-9, addressing the propriety of judges entering into judicial services contracts, cautioned about contract provisions that "create an impropriety or appearance of impropriety concerning a judge's activities." New judges may be unknowingly lured into ethical jeopardy by the content and form of these personal services contracts.

In addition, there has been recent discussion within the Administrative Office of the Courts and some courts concerning the categorization of pro tem judges as 'employees' as opposed to 'independent contractors' for purposes of taxes and benefits. The IRS and Social Security Administration have taken the position that pro tem judges and pro tem commissioners are considered employees for federal tax purposes. If a pro tem is classified as an "employee," certainly the judge must be also. Not all municipal governments take this position.

General Rule 29
PRESIDING JUDGE IN SUPERIOR COURT DISTRICT AND LIMITED JURISDICTION COURT DISTRICT

(a) - (j) [Unchanged.]

(k) Judicial Services Employment Contracts. A part-time judicial officer may contract with a municipal or county authority for salary and benefits to serve as a judicial officer. The personal service employment contract shall not contain provisions which conflict with this rule, the Code of Judicial Conduct or statutory judicial authority, or which would create an impropriety or the appearance of impropriety concerning the judge's activities. The employment contract should acknowledge the court is a part of an independent branch of government and that the judicial officer or court employees are bound to act in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct and ~~this~~ Washington State Court rules.

Commentary

~~The Board for Judicial Administration should establish a model judicial services contract.~~
